Fair Ends Successful Session

COTTON CANDY and a giant size balloon are enough to keep almost any small boy happy and the two items worked fine with Jackie Fleming, 4, at the closing day of the Marion County Fair Thursday. Jackie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fleming of Toledo. After a day of walking around the fairgrounds Jackie was satisfied to sit down and relax for a while.

France's Bid For Morocco Truce Jolted

Sultan Says He Won't Give In to Nationalist Demands To Abdicate

AIX LES BAINS, France (AP)—Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa dropped a bombshell into the French-Moroccan conference here today with a statement that he does not intend to quit his throne.

The statement was released by the Sultan's chief of protocol, Si Abderrahman El Hajoui, generally regarded the power behind the Moroccan throne in Rabat. El Hajoui conferred with French ministers this morning, immediately on his arrival here from Rabat.

Complicates Efforts

The Sultan's refusal to leave the throne gravely complicates efforts of French Premier Edgar Faure to settle the Moroccan crisis in a deal with Moroccan nationalists who have been demanding Ben Arafa's removal.

An agreement under which Ben Arafa would leave the throne had been reported by high French officials as all but set.

The French and the nationalists had virtually reached a complete agreement on the terms of a settlement whereby Ben Arafa would be replaced by a "council of the throne," and the government run by a representative coalition.

The Sultan's adamant stand jeopardizes Faure's program because Defense Minister Pierre Koenig reflects the views of an important section of Faure's own coalition government in Paris.

Grandval Slated To Go

Faure's plan reportedly also included the removal of French Resident General Gilbert Grandval to appease diehard French colonists. The idea was to clean the slate in preparation for giving home rule to the violence-ridden North African protectorate.

"We are making progress," Faure told reporters Thursday night after meeting with leaders of the strongest nationalist faction, the Istiqlal Independence party.

See Way Clear

"Everything has not been settled yet, but I now see my way clear," the Premier added.

Faure arranged to meet today with representatives of the French colonials, a delegation from Morocco's Jewish community, and a group of Moslem religious leaders.

The Premier's plan was understood to run something like this:

1. Unpopular old Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa would retire from the throne he has occupied uncertainly over the past two years since the French kicked out his predecessor Mohammed Ben Youssef.

2. Grandval, sent to Morocco six weeks ago to seek peace, would follow the Sultan out of office. The French colonials charge his "soft" ideas of a compromise with the nationalists caused the North African massacres last weekend in which an estimated 2,000 persons were killed. To save the government's face, Grandval probably would be kicked upstairs to a post outside North Africa.

3. Ben Youssef, the ex-Sultan who has become the focus of nationalist agitation, would be allowed to move from his present place of exile in Madagascar, off

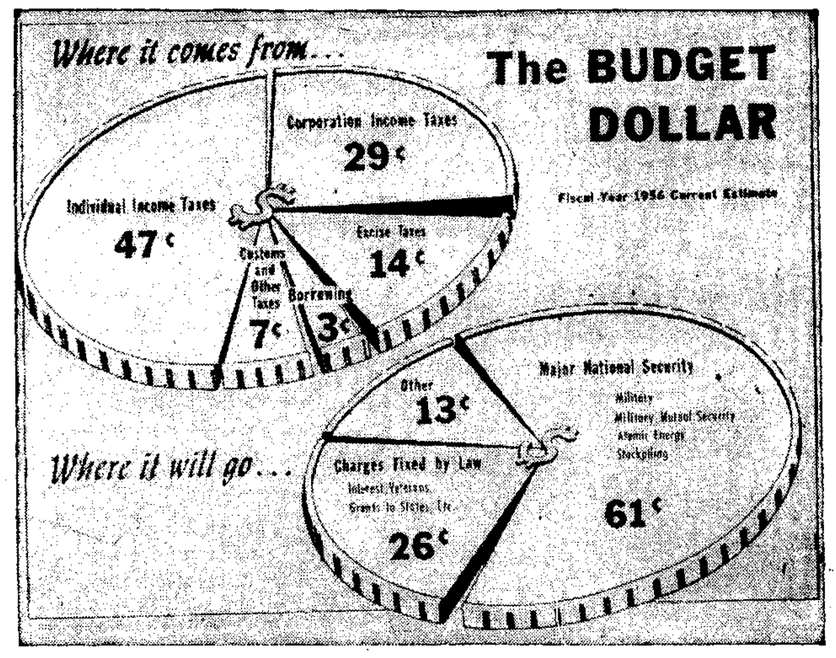
Humphrey Issues Bid For Balanced Budget



WHERE TAX DOLLAR COMES FROM, WHERE IT GOES. Here's the budget bureau's regular chart which shows you where the government's tax dollar comes from and where it is spent. The chart was released in Washington in conjunction with Budget bureau report.

Possible This Year, He Says In Conference

Boom Hikes Federal Income; Ducks Talk Of Tax Cut Chances

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, using words he has cherished ever since he took office 2½ years ago, now says the government "should and can" balance the budget this fiscal year.

But he added at a news conference Thursday that it is "entirely too early" to pledge himself to recommending tax cuts when Congress returns in January.

Short of Figure

The official summer budget revision by the Treasury Department stopped $1,700,000,000 short of Humphrey's optimism about the budget outlook. The Treasury still predicted a deficit of that amount by the end of fiscal year 1956, next June 30.

That was 700 million dollars lower than the figure President Eisenhower forecast in his budget message to Congress last January. The cut was based on the following revised estimates:

1. Spending will total $63,800,000,000 this fiscal year—1,400,000,000 more than the January estimate, but 700 millions less than spending of 64½ billions in fiscal 1955, ended June 30.

2. But the government's income will be swelled enough by the rapid economic expansion now in progress to more than overbalance the rise in the spending estimate. Receipts for the current fiscal year are now estimated at $62,100,000,000—$2,100,000,000 above the estimate made last January, and $1,800,000,000 higher than the fiscal tax yield of $60,300,000,000.

3. The budget deficit is now estimated at $1,700,000,000 for the fiscal year, instead of the 2,400,000,000 forecast in January. The deficit for fiscal 1955 was $4,200,000,000.

Lowest in 5 Years

The new deficit would be the lowest in five years, and would be only 3 per cent of total spending.

Even so, there was every indication that the $1,700,000,000 red ink forecast was little more than official caution. The budget review text said it was possible that "a balanced budget will be brought into sight as the year unfolds."

And Humphrey, obviously enjoying what he was saying, read the following statement, made jointly with Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes, to newsmen:

"If there is ever a time when our budget should be balanced, it is now.

Americans are enjoying new peaks of prosperity ... but this simply emphasizes the need for wisdom and restraint, in both public and private affairs.

Worse for Government

"Everybody knows that no family can continually live largely beyond its means. It is worse for government to do so. History shows how continued heavy deficits contribute to inflation, with rapidly rising costs, finally result-

Flood-Stricken States Get New Help From Ike

Administration Okays $900 Million in Loans On Reconstruction Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Northeastern states, struggling to rebuild flood-wrecked towns and factories, have been given another hefty lift from a sympathetic federal government.

President Eisenhower Thursday made available up to 900 million dollars for loans to reconstruct, repair or replace defense industries.

Calls Loss 'Appalling'

A preliminary estimate by the Army Engineers set damage at $1,600,000,000 in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Lt. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis, chief of engineers, made a personal reconnaissance of the stricken area. He spoke of "appalling" loss of life and "utter destruction." He forecast "one of the biggest, toughest rehabilitation jobs since the one Noah faced after the great flood of biblical days."

The President's latest flood relief move was made at his Denver summer headquarters after a flying visit to the flood area and conferences with state governors and federal officials.

Marshals All Resources

Before leaving Washington Wednesday, the President had marshaled the resources of a host of government agencies to help in reconstruction of public facilities and to aid the homeless, the farmers, small businessmen and others.

On top of this emergency relief program — which may cost more than 100 million dollars — he ordered the loan program to spur

18,683 Paid Patrons Listed for 6 Days; State Event Next

The 105th Marion County Fair came to a close Thursday night, following a highly successful six-day stand. Officials reported the paid attendance at the closing session of the fair was 2,512. That brought the total number of paid admissions for the six days to 18,683, well above the 15,130 paid customers of the 1954 fair.

Fair officials estimated that there were about 25,000 persons attending the fair with the extra persons being admitted on exhibitors passes and Marion County Agricultural Society membership tickets.

The fairgrounds was a mass of confusion Thursday afternoon and evening as exhibitors packed up their stock and moved to Columbus where the Ohio State Fair opened this morning.

Many of the same animals which won top prizes here were expected to take high awards in the state wide competition.

FAIR OFFICIALS were pleased with the attendance as well as with the number and quality of the entries in the livestock events. They called some of the local entries as fine as can be found anywhere.

Officials reported the persons who managed the concessions at the fairgrounds also were highly pleased, both with the turnout and with the weather which predominated all six days. The temperature was warm enough for the cold food dealers and cool enough at other times for the sandwich and warm food handlers. Only one day of rain marred the fair, that on Monday.

Thursday's activities consisted of judging Junior Fair floats, the livestock and float parade, a 10-point Western Horse Show and two performances by the WLW Midwestern Hayride show.

Ohio State Fair Launched With Salute to Youth

75,000 Likely To Be On Hand Today for Opening of Exposition

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sunny skies and comfortable temperatures greeted the first visitors passing through the gates of the Ohio State Fair today.

One of the first visitors on the opening day of the big exposition was Gov. Frank J. Lausche. He appeared on the grounds at 6 a.m., and began a tour of the fairgrounds with officials.

Expected 50,000 Youngsters

Fair Manager Sam Cashman yesterday predicted a turnout of 75,000, including 50,000 youngsters. It will cost 75 cents to get in except for youngsters under 12. They will be admitted free.

Today's activity, tagged youth day, will be highlighted with such events as a youth talent contest, baton twirling contest, youth day parade, 4-H style revue, fashion show, junior fair queens' ball and fireworks at night.

There will also be judging of draft horses and ponies and junior fair livestock contests.

Harness racing (except Sunday, Sept. 1), stock car racing and championship wrestling will be staged for sports-minded folk. And for everybody, there'll be nightly fireworks.

Big Parade of Stars

The big "Parade of Stars," as Cashman calls it, includes Hopalong (William Boyd) Cassidy, singer Gisele MacKenzie and the Ted Weems orchestra. They may be seen today and tomorrow. Singers Snooky Lanson, Eddie Peabody, Peggy King, Bill "Davey Crockett" Hayes, the Billy May's orchestra with Sam Donahue, and comedy and acrobatic acts, are on the agenda Sunday through Wednesday.

Late August Heat Wave To Continue

By The Associated Press

Most of the mid-continent was in for more hot weather today as a late August heat wave showed no sign of an immediate break.

Temperatures in the 90s and higher appeared in prospect for the hot belt. Readings of 100 or higher were general yesterday from Oklahoma northward into South Dakota. Top mark was 105 at Hill City, Kan.

America Asks Delay in Talks With Red China

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The United States today requested a four-day postponement of Saturday's scheduled meeting with Communist China on the question of Americans detained by the Peiping regime. There was growing speculation that the issue was near settlement.

U. S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson, who has been carrying on the talks with Red China's Ambassador Wang Ping-nan since Aug. 1, requested the postponement. He gave no reason. The Communists agreed to the request and the next meeting was set for Wednesday.

The two envoys have been unable to get off the first item of their agenda in nearly a month of talking. This item covers the return of civilians of both sides to their respective countries.

MONTREAL (AP) — Nine Russian farm representatives began a tour of eastern Quebec today after a month-long, 12,000-mile look at the United States. They will wind up their Canadian trip in Ottawa Sept. 9.

Solution Lies in Survey

City Faced by Critical Sewer Problem; Answer Not Simple

With Marion's traffic problem under solution by way of a master engineering survey now in progress, the city is ready to tackle a second big problem — an inadequate sewer system. Following is the first in a series outlining the problem and plan of attack.

By CHARLES L. MARTIN

Does Marion have a sewer problem?

Ask any homeowner whose basement is flooded each time it rains and the answer is obvious.

Ask any home building contractor, Chamber of Commerce official or member of any other agency interested in the growth and prosperity of the city and the answer is the same.

ASK MEMBERS of the city engineer department or other professional engineers and you get a definite yes—the city does have a problem which needs correcting.

What then are the needs? At present no one is able to give a detailed answer specifically and exactly answering this question. But there are a number of basic needs on which the experts agree. These include such things as:

Extensions of existing trunkline sanitary and storm water sewers on E. Center St. and Mt. Vernon Ave. at least to the city limits and beyond if possible.

Corrective action of some sort to eliminate unpleasant odors rising from both the Columbia St. and Ququa open ditch storm water sewers.

IMPROVEMENTS of several existing storm and sanitary sewers in the city through enlargement or additions to eliminate basement flooding and the resulting unsanitary conditions.

A check of house laterals and street sewers to determine the extent of interconnection of storm and sanitary sewers followed by adoption of necessary legislation to effect corrective measures.

Spotters Look For Hurricane 'Edith' To Grow

May Reach 125 m.p.h. Intensity by Saturday, Weather Bureau Says

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Edith, fifth of the year and third this month, churned far out in the Atlantic today and weathermen predicted it would grow in size and intensity.

Still small as hurricanes go, Edith had winds of 75 miles an hour (hurricane force) or more over a small area near the center after two days of whirling in the open sea.

The Miami Weather Bureau advisory said:

"Hurricane Edith was centered at latitude 25.6 North longitude 62.6 West or 1,000 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras, N.C., at 5 a.m. EST.

"The storm is moving toward the northwest at 13 m.p.h. and highest winds are estimated at 80 m.p.h. Hurricane winds extend out about 70 miles to the north and east and 75 miles to the south and west of the center. . . .

"The hurricane is expected to increase slowly in intensity and size and to continue moving towards the northwest at about 13 m.p.h. for the next 12 to 18 hours."

Weather forecasters said it was too early to predict what course Edith might take once she reached maturity. A weather forecaster predicted the storm would have winds of about 125 miles an hour by Saturday.

Thursday night Edith was within 100 miles of the area where Hurricane Diane was plotted Aug. 12. Diane, sweeping northwestward five days behind Hurricane Connie, lashed the populous Northeastern states with torrential rains, causing damage estimated at $1,600,000,000 or more.

Worth May Be Gauged by Fall

Salk Program Showing Results, Scheele Asserts

WASHINGTON (AP)—It will be fall before the nationwide polio vaccine program resumes full stride and its results so far can be evaluated.

This was indicated today by comments from federal officials and by a survey of state capitals on plans for implementing a new program of federal aid to provide free vaccine for many children.

Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele told reporters Thursday there are signs the incomplete inoculation program already is beginning to show beneficial results in preventing paralysis or death.

The Public Health Service reported Thursday 11,862 polio cases since the "disease year" began April 1. This compared with 13,346 cases a year ago. Mass inoculation began shortly after April 1.

More Data Needed

But Scheele stressed that any real evaluation must await scientific analysis of data that won't be available until this fall "at the earliest."

About 6½ million children already have received shots of the Salk vaccine.

Meanwhile, state officials reported preliminary steps toward taking advantage of a new law providing 30 million dollars in federal funds for state-administered free vaccine programs.

Decision Up to States

No state as yet has submitted its plans for approval by the health service, but federal officials said they expect action within a few weeks. The funds are available only until next February — when Congress may continue the aid or chop it off.

Under the law, states will decide which children get the free vac-

Youth Dies in Head-On Collision Near Mansfield

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Richard Rush, 16-year-old Hayesville, Ohio, boy was killed early today in a two-car headon collision on U.S. 30, five miles east of here. He was driving one of the cars, police said.

Officials at Mansfield General Hospital said the driver of the other car, Wayne Liegey, 21, of Mansfield, was in "very poor" condition.

Naugatuck Valley Stricken

Connecticut's Industrial Lifeline Severed by Flood

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP) — The Naugatuck Valley, known as Connecticut's "industrial lifeline," is as smashed by floods as though a Panzer division traveled its length with all barrels blazing.

"It looks like the end of the world," muttered an old man on Torrington's East Main Street, shaking his head unbelievingly at the damage.

"I'm near 80, and I thought I'd seen everything, but never anything like this."

From Torrington, down through Thomaston, Waterbury, Union City, Naugatuck, and on to Seymour, Ansonia and Derby, grim scenes still unfold a week after the waters struck.

Waterbury presents one of the starkest pictures in its so-called "Brooklyn" section.

There the search for bodies still goes on in the masses of debris.

The scene is concentrated on a knocked-out railroad bridge.

So powerful were the floodwaters that freight cars on the bridge were knocked about like egg crates.

One green and yellow box car was thrown into a tenement house, ripping away the side of the building. The green and yellow car stands on a red car, which in turn settled on top of a black open freight car.

Wedged against what's left of the bridge are tons of lumber and other wreckage.

"There are still bodies in there," said George Russell, a Health Department inspector.

A concrete highway bridge just below and parallel to the railway bridge still stands. But against it lies an uprooted six-family tenement.

Other houses simply evaporated.

Want Cold War Truce

Russians Will Negotiate For Peace, U.S. Believes

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States officials believe Russia wants a cold war truce so strongly that it may be willing to pay a substantial price in concessions to the West.

These authorities expect a period of hard bargaining, however, in which the western powers can achieve their aims only if they keep up their strength and insist on what they consider reasonable settlements of major East-West issues.

May Okay Unification

Some leaders are reported to believe it is entirely possible that Russia will agree to the unification of Germany on terms desired by the Western Powers in about two years. Secretary of State Dulles is understood to hold this view.

New estimates of Russia's real interest in forthcoming East-West negotiations have been made here after last month's summit conference at Geneva.

As a result, the U.S. approach to further talks seems certain to be based on the idea that if the western naitons are firm enough in their proposals and in their unity, the Russians will come around to acceptable agreements.

Nixon Addresses Bar

Apparently it was thinking along this line which prompted the heavy emphasis that President Eisenhower gave in a speech Wednesday to the argument that the free nations must not accept the present division of the world.

Vice President Nixon included the same points Thursday night in a speech which, like Eisenhower's, was delivered before the American Bar Assn. in Philadelphia.

Fundamental to the success of this approach to the Russians, officials said today, is the necessity for the Western Powers parti-

Depot Sends 4 More Bridges To Flood Area

Four more Bailey bridges were shipped by Marion Engineer Deport personnel late Thursday night for use in the Massachusetts flood disaster area.

These bridges were 130 feet in length and had Worcester, Mass. as their destination. With these bridges, the Depot has sent a total of 39 bridges, varying in size from 30 to 170 feet in length, to the Massachusetts and Pennsylvania disaster areas since last Saturday.

In a message from the office of the Chief of Engineers, local Depot officials were told that the Corps of Engineers' clean-up assistance in the flood relief work was being provided as authorized by Civil Defense authorities.

The Corps is not performing the entire clean-up and temporary restoration job, it explained, but is doing specific authorized tasks, such as removal of debris and removal of health and safety hazards for temporary restoration of public facilities, which exceed the abilities of state and local authorities in the disaster areas.

The bulk of the actual restoration work will be handled by civilian contractors and local labor, the message said.

Connecticut

You see a foundation here, a sink there. That's all that tells you that Riverside Street once was lined by homes.

Even residents of Waterbury are barred from this roped-off disaster area, patrolled by National Guardsmen. Only those on emergency duty are permitted in.

Bulldozers and cranes remove the wreckage, almost piece by piece. And as they do, another body turns up. Civil defense workers go through the area spraying buildings still standing with DDT the way a farmer sprays his orchard.

The floods, ironically, now are producing virtual duststorms as the mud dries.

Even in the center of the city, flooded but less hard hit than the Brooklyn section, the dust stirred up by traffic and winds is such that traffic policemen wear masks.

In Torrington, the voice of a tough-looking policeman quavers as he says:

"We've never had anything like this—not in the memory of the oldest residents or anywhere in the records."

cularly not to relax their military strength.

A presidential report to Congress Thursday night on foreign aid activities up to June 30 told of accomplishments in building up free world strength.

As a result of foreign aid and of cooperative efforts of participating nations, the President said, the free world is now "better protected from external aggression or internal subversion than ever before."

Administration leaders are understood to be convinced that this buildup of military power is one of the things which has persuaded the Russians to seek to ease tensions.

But they base their assessment also on other factors such as a realization of the destructiveness of the H-bomb, agricultural and industrial problems within Russia and a possible Russian hope that easing of tensions might cause the free world to relax.

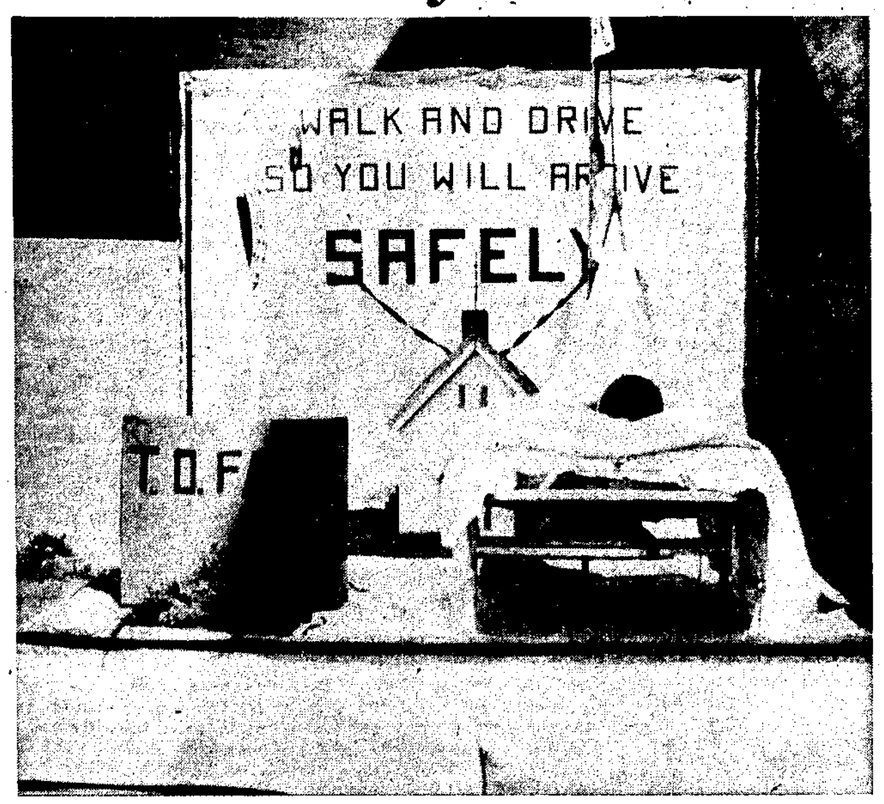
Marion County's Fair Closes



THE MARION COUNTY FAIR closed a highly-successful six-day session Thursday. Highlights of the closing day activities were judging of Junior Fair floats and a Western Horse Show.

UPPER: The Claridon FFA Chapter won first place in the float judging in the morning with a float depicting the results of careless walking and driving. The "patient" with his leg in a cast is Robert Smith of near Marion. All floats were paraded through downtown streets following a parade at the fairgrounds.

LOWER: One of the winners in the Western Horse Show was Kay Keefer, 20, of Canton. Her animal won the Spotted Horse Class. There were 11 classes in the show which drew about 60 entries from all over the state.

Fair

In the float judging, first place went to the Claridon FFA Chapter. The New Bloomington Lads won second place and the Morral - Grand Prairie Farmerettes were placed third.

—:—

FOLLOWING A parade around the grandstand, the floats were taken through the downtown streets to give the city dwellers a chance to view the work of the young people in the county.

They were accompanied by bands from Harding High School, Claridon, Pleasant and Waldo Schools. Persons in the downtown section may vote for the float to receive cash prizes at any of the stores in the downtown area until closing time tonight. Ballot boxes have been placed in all stores.

The winner of the float balloting will receive a $30 prize. A prize of $20 will go to the second place entry and $10 to the third.

In the Western Horse Show, Rocket's Golden Jubilee, owned and ridden by Judy Easton of Chagrin Falls, was picked winner of the Western Horse Stake Class which brought together the finest horses shown in the afternoon.

Second place in that event went to Sheik of Belvedere, owned and ridden by June Rowe of Bucyrus. Third place was awarded to Talk of the Town, owned and ridden by Kay Keefer of Canton.

In the other classes, the first three horses, rider and owner follow:

Western Parade Class: 1. Rise and Shine, owned and ridden by Juanita Shaffer of Mansfield; 2. Royal Clipper, owned and ridden by Russell Rowley of near Spencer; 3. Cherokee Chief, ridden by Ann Bletzaker and owned by Jake Casson.

WESTERN SPOTTED Horse Class: 1. Talk of the Town, by Kay Keefer; 2. The Auctioneer, ridden by J. C. Fausey and owned by the Idle Hour Farms of near Marion; 3. Tomahawk Lady, owned and ridden by Bob Hart of Marysville.

Western Pony Class (over 48 inches to 56 inches): 1. Golden Peacock, owned and ridden by Carol Jean Geisler of Dayton; 2. Little Brown Jug, ridden by Eva Lee Geisler and owned by H. D. Geisler of Dayton; 3. Ko-Ko-Mo-Joe, owned and ridden by Jim Caywood of the Caywood Pony Farm near Plymouth.

Western Plain Horse Class: 1. Mahogany, ridden by Pattie Ward and owned by Bert Ward of Berlin Heights; 2. Big Bill B, owned and ridden by Joe Buckey of the Sugar Ram Farm in Mount Sterling; 3. Golden Blaze, ridden by O. J. Humphrey and owned by Cy Sawyer of Newark.

Western Ladies Class: 1. Rocket's Golden Jubilee by Judy Easton; 2. Sheik of Belvedere by June Rowe; 3. Big Bill B by Joe Buckey.

Western Palomino Class: 1. Rocket's Golden Jubilee; 2. Shiek of Belvedere; 3. Little Sandusky, owned and ridden by Judy Pendergast of Morral.

Western Pony Class (48 inches and under): 1. Little Guy, owned and ridden by Jim Caywood of Caywood Pony Farms near Plymouth; 2. Little Black Sambo, ridden by Eva Lee Geisler and owned by H. D. Geisler of Dayton; 3. Sweet Georgia Brown, owned and ridden by Jo Lynne Sterling of North Baltimore.

Western Single Hitch Class: 1. The Auctioneer, ridden by J. C. Fausey; 2. Sheik of Belvedere, ridden by Larry Hall; 3. Kanwha, owned and ridden by Phil Boyd of Marion.

Western Pleasure Horse Class: 1. Panchita, owned and ridden by Guy Radcliff of near Wellington; 2. Vicki, owned and ridden by Judy Easton of Chagrin Falls; 3. Millstream Gypsy, ridden by Ann Blitzacker and owned by Joan Kreuter of Marion.

Western Stock Horse Class: 1. Cantonette, ridden by Dale Williamson and owned by Norm Reed of Findlay; 2. Jerry, owned and ridden by Art Bartram of Orrville; 3. Pecos Nugget, owned and ridden by Robert Bradley.

Officials of the show reported there were about 60 horses entered from all sections of the state. Many of the owners used the Marion event as a tuneup for the state competition today in Columbus.

The fairgrounds today are almost deserted as the livestock, concession booths and display tents have been taken down and moved to another fair or returned to their normal places. Fair officials are still on the job, though, computing the final figures of this year's fair.

Boy, 13, Cited

A 13-year-old Marion boy was cited to appear before juvenile authorities today on a charge of shooting a B-B gun in the city. Police took the boy into custody at the rear of 751 Bellefontaine Ave at 3:58 p.m. Thursday after receiving complaints from neighbors. He was ordered to appear before Juvenile Officer Virgil Campbell at 1 p.m. today and to be accompanied by a parent.

cine. Some states are planning to supplement federal funds to provide free injections for all children, or at least for more children than could be supplied through federal appropriations alone.

The federal sum is roughly enough to vaccinate about 25 per cent of the children. Each state's share will vary from this percentage, depending on its per capita income.

When this program gets started, states may distribute the free vaccine through either public agencies or private channels.

Two other vaccine programs already are under way.

In one of these, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is furnishing free shots to first and second-grade schoolchildren.

Under the other, which has handled relatively small amounts so far, vaccine is distributed to the states from commercial manufacturers under quotas set up by the federal government. Some states are paying for this vaccine and giving it free to children, although much of this material probably will go through normal business channels to commercial drug outlets and private physicians.

Bad Checks Received

Marion police today were investigating complaints from three local grocery stores Thursday that a bad check artist was operating in the city. Managers at the Albers, Krogers and Big Bear stores told police that a young woman came into the stores Thursday afternoon and presented $35 checks and asked they be cashed. Later investigation disclosed all the checks were worthless and that all were identical to each other.

Woman Draws Jail Term on Morals Charge

A Marion County woman was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $300 and costs last night after a Municipal Court jury found her guilty of a morals charge filed against her by the sheriff's department.

Mrs. Sue DeRose of Newman's was charged with being the keeper of a house of prostitution after sheriff's deputies raided the house at Newman's last month.

Pleading innocent to the charge, Mrs. DeRose asked for a jury trial and the trial date was set for Wednesday, Aug. 24.

Beginning at 9:50 a.m. Wednesday the trial lasted until 6:35 p.m. Thursday at which time the case was given to the jurors for their deliberation.

After dinner, the jury composed of five women and seven men, began their deliberations at 8:30 p.m. and returned their guilty verdict at 11:20 p.m.

Disposition of the cases of two other women arrested in the raid and charged with being inmates of the house has not been made. The other two women arrested were Jeane Martin and Helen Davis, both of whom gave Columbus addresses.

In addition to the fine and jail term imposed on Mrs. DeRose, Judge W. Dexter Hazen declared her residence at Newman's a nuisance and ordered the sheriff's department to "abate the nuisance."

Mrs. DeRose indicated that she planned to appeal the conviction and Judge Hazen set her bond at $2,000 pending outcome of the appeal.

ing in destruction of all values . . .

"Barring some unforeseen development, we think that we should, and that we can, balance the budget this year."

This brought immediate questions about tax cuts. Humphrey refused firmly and repeatedly to say the improved outlook necessarily meant taxes could come down next year. Just as firmly, he declined to say tax cuts would not be made.

Democrats in Congress have said they will initiate tax cut legislation early next year, regardless of the administration attitude. But before he could back any such move, Humphrey said, he would have to be able to see beyond a balanced budget, to a "trend" of surplus income. He said that did not mean he would have to have the surplus in the government's tills before he backed a slash in tax rates. He said he would plump for lower taxes as soon as he could look ahead and see the extra income on the way.

Declines Details

He declined to discuss what types of tax reductions he might recommend, but in the past he has said they should be broad, benefitting both individuals and business.

The new budget estimates boosted spending for atomic energy to an all-time high of $1,900,000,000, for both bomb materials and peaceful application of atomic energy.

But the other three major national security programs, the armed forces, military aid and stockpiling, took cuts. These resulted in a defense spending dip of 1¾ billion dollars below last year, to a new post-Korea low of $38,750,000,000.

Most nondefense spending totals were higher than estimated in January, and higher than actual spending in the fiscal year just concluded.

Rise in Receipts Seen

The budget review predicted a rise during the current fiscal year in tax receipts from almost all major sources. It said the yield from personal income taxes would rise most, by some 1¼ billion dollars, to $32,800,000,000, while corporation taxes would rise about 900 million over last year's total, to about $19,200,000,000.

On the spending side, the picture was mottled, a mixture of ups and downs compared to last January's estimates.

Here is the outline, in billions of dollars, the first column (A) the fiscal 1955 spending; the second column (B) the January estimate for fiscal 1956; and the third column (C) the new estimate for fiscal 1956:

Quaker Oats Firm Presents Workers With Yearly Bonus

Employes of the Marion plant of The Quaker Oats Co. received $34,998 in annual profit-sharing checks today. This 20th annual wage bonus added an average of $253 to the employes' regular earnings during the company's recently ended business year.

L. L. Kreuter, plant manager, explained that 138 local employes were eligible to share in company profits this year. Eligibility is chiefly dependent upon six months or more of service.

Similar checks also went out to workers in Quaker Oats' Chicago headquarters and in its other plants, grain elevators and sales offices throughout the country. Total profit-sharing sum was $1,377,011.

The profit sharing plan was voluntarily established by the company 20 years ago. It allows employes to share in profits whenever the company has a successful year. To date, employes have shared a total of $15,456,362 over regular pay.

Sewers

Establishment of an inspection department as a part of the city engineer department to employ a qualified inspector to enforce the minimum standards of sewer construction, giving him authority to refuse permission for use of any sewer not meeting these standards.

—:—

ALL THESE are the more obvious needs of the city's sewer system, but only tell part of the story. The problem actually is more complex than it appears and possibly one of the most pressing needs is a comprehensive engineering survey with a report outlining all the needs in detail, together with necessary preliminary plans and a program for construction.

Preparations for such a survey were started two years ago by the city engineering department when, for the first time, a map of the city sewer system was drawn.

Now, investigation into the possibility of obtaining the completed survey has been started by city officials and a local engineering firm has presented a proposal for making the survey.

Questions city officials must now answer include: Shall the survey be for both sanitary and storm water sewers? Is a plan desired which will contemplate serving the suburban areas adjacent to the city? Will the city need the cooperation and financial assistance of the county in providing adequate facilities within the city to serve areas presently lying outside the city limits?

Once these questions are answered, the engineering firm is prepared to present a bid price for doing the preliminary survey and report which would recommend a program of construction on the basis of need.

A NATURAL question is to ask if the survey is really a necessity. Yes it is, answers City Engineer John Ruth. It is the only way for developing an overall plan for improvements and expansion which will integrate present with future needs, he explains.

Without the survey to serve as a guidepost, it would be next to impossible to know which improvement or expansion project is the most necessary from the standponit of civic progress and prosperity, other experts add.

The next question is: How much is this survey and the recommended improvements going to cost? Until the city itself decides how extensive it shall be, the cost of the survey is anybody's guess.

As for the cost of the improvements, this would be determined by the survey, but there is one thing certain, the longer action is delayed, the greater will be the problem and the cost say the city engineers.

Next: expanding the city's sewers.

restoration of the defense industries.

The plan also calls for granting of accelerated tax writeoff privileges to cover new capital investment. The loans — to come out of an Office of Defense Mobilization fund — are to be available to defense and defense-supporting firms which cannot obtain commercial loans on reasonable terms.

Army Engineer units were busy helping dispose of flood debris and repair damaged roads, bridges and like facilities. Sturgis said one of the most pressing tasks facing federal disaster workers is the removal of dangers to health and safety.

With this disaster "fresh in the minds of the public," Sturgis said, this would be a good time to consider the problem of better flood protection throughout the nation. He said the country still is a long way from "even the degree of flood protection the engineers are now technically capable of providing."

He said he would ask for about $750,000 for a survey of ways to guard the vulnerable Eastern Seaboard area from floods caused by hurricanes. He estimated adequate flood protection of this sort might cost about 150 million dollars.

East Africa, to France. It was believed the Istiqlal would not insist that he be returned to the throne immediately.

4. An interim regency, called the "Council of the Throne," would be set up to organize a widely representative Moroccan government. This regime would negotiate with the French for some measure of home rule in the protectorate which the Europeans have run almost completely.

To Meet Faure

Grandval will come here tomorrow to meet Faure. Reports persisted that he already had resigned or was about to, but Faure told newsmen Thursday that the resident general had neither quit nor been recalled.

While the talks continued, French forces in Morocco attempted to track down some 6,000 members of the Smaala Berber tribe whose horsemen swept down from the Atlas foothills to take part in the Oued Zem massacre Saturday.

French army officers said about 2,000 tribesmen and their families had disappeared from their usual haunts and moved towards the upper ranges of the middle Atlas Mountains.

Police Investigate Break-Ins at Two Marion Buildings

Two break-ins were under investigation today by Marion police.

Sometime during the night, Hoover's Restaurant and garage at 627 Bellefontaine Ave. was broken into, ransacked, several cartons of cigarettes were stolen and a cash register was removed.

Police said the cash register was found lying outside the building on the ground and that it had contained no money when stolen.

Entrance to the building was gained by using a large crowbar or large screwdriver to pry open the front door, police said. The break-in was discovered by employes and reported to police at 6:30 a.m. today.

The other break-in was discovered and reported to police at 1:11 a.m. this morning. It occurred at the office of the Equitable Life Insurance Co. in an office building at 187½ E. Center St. Police said entrance to the building was gained by entering a restroom window from the roof and the office door was pried open with a large screwdriver.

Nothing was found missing in the office but marks on the doors of two other offices in the building indicated attempts had been made to enter them also. The other offices were those of Dr. R. E. Eicher and Dr. George W. Pfleiderer.

Youth at LaRue Suffers Accidental Gun Wound

A 19-year-old LaRue youth was wounded in a shooting accident Thursday evening, the sheriff's office reported today.

Deputies said Robert Michael Lee, 19, of LaRue was shot in the hand when he stumbled while out shooting along the Scioto River near LaRue. They reported the boy was shooting at a twig on a tree and moved closer to get a better target.

The youth stumbled and fell to the ground. While he was falling, deputies reported, his right index finger released the trigger of his .22 caliber rifle. The bullet tore through the palm of his left hand and went completely through the hand.

The boy was taken to the Richwood Clinic where he was treated for the wound and released.

Fraud Orders

By George Sokolsky

How many police forces does the government employ? I have not noticed this item in the Hoover reports, although I should imagine when I have read them all, something will appear on the subject of duplicative police activities in the executive branch of the government. One difficulty in any analysis of these police activities is that they are not so described by law. Usually they derive from the investigative powers of various agencies which grow increasingly complex and competitive.

SOKOLSKY

For instance, the Post Office has, by law, a vast police authority which has grown over the history of the republic. The present postmaster general is not responsible for any of it, but he or any of his successors can be made utterly ridiculous by an overzealous inspector who has to decide what is a moral and what is a fraud. Is Lysistrata immoral?

ONE PROBLEM is for the Post Office to decide what medical activities are virtuous and what are frauds. How can the Post Office decide that when the doctors disagree?

For instance, not so long ago we were all involved in some stuff called chlorophyll which is the green in grass and leaves. We were given chlorophyll in all sorts of things to do something or other for us. For a while, every drug store was covered with green advertisements. These items were sold legitimately and perfectly ethical drug companies earned money from them. Today the stuff is strictly passe. Chlorophyll is out of fashion.

On the other hand, snakeroot, which the old medicine man sold from his wagon for a dollar a bottle and cure guaranteed or money back, was, for years, regarded as a fake. The peddlers were moved along by the police.

Today, when the heart begins to go ziggety-zaggety, the doctors prescribe "Raudixin," which is manufactured from the whole root of "Rauwolfia serpentina," in a word, snakeroot — the same as the old medicine man used to sell.

SOME OLD REMEDIES are becoming popular with the medical profession as doctors know more about them. The Chinese knew about antibiotics centuries ago and so did the peasants of Europe but the doctors only recently discovered that the mould on kvass is a remedy.

Now, the Post Office, the Federal Trade Commission, the Food and Drug Administration are empowered to read all advertisements and to use their great authorities to prevent fraud.

THEY CAN PREVENT a toothpaste company from saying that some special stuff put into the toothpaste saves the teeth. But does any toothpaste save teeth? Some dentists say that no toothpaste will do that and they tell their patients to use plain table salt instead of toothpaste which contains abrasives.

Yet no one proposes to stop all toothpaste advertising. By what rule of life or thumb do these agencies pursue their noble purposes?

For instance, my old friend, Bernarr Macfadden years ago got into trouble with the Post Office for advertising a cure for something or other. Macfadden's defense was that he advertised no cure. All he did was to advise folks how to keep well.

Macfadden ought to know something about that because he started his manhood as a consumptive and has managed to live to his 87th birthday, a powerful physical figure. He once gave me a friendly poke in the solar plexus, for fun, and I think I feel it yet. He has resisted medical aid and lives on vegetables and nuts which are a bore and may be the cause of his various matrimonial troubles.

IF MACFADDEN sells his experience for money, is he more unethical than the physicians who prescribe powerful remedies before they were sure of their effects on the particular individual?

This is not written in criticism of physicians, pharmacists or antibiotics, except the multiplicity of policing by the federal government, so that if a fellow wants to buy snakeroot as a cure, he cannot do it until the doctors have rechristened it "Raudixin," whereupon it becomes kosher and no one goes to jail.

New CIO Formula

By Victor Riesel

Alongside the runways of scores of civilian airports across the world are thousands of Army, Navy and Marine aircraft. Whether your Pan-American stratocruiser taxis down the field past huge Globemasters in Tokyo, or past fighter jets under machine-gun guard on the vast Bangkok strips, or past giant transports on Paris' Orly field the old familiar U.S. Army star reveals our flying boys are around.

VICTOR RIESEL

You get the feeling that we have a tremendous number of winged fighters and carriers and that sooner or later we'll be forced to stop producing them. Furthermore, there isn't a capital in the world where the scuttlebut doesn't have it that Washington is about to slash war production as a gesture of goodwill and peace on earth.

I have no inside information on President Eisenhower's disarmament plans — I can only report what is being said.

APPARENTLY, THERE is belief in some labor circles, here as well as abroad, that there will be layoffs in aircraft and armament plants in a year or so.

This being the era of "guaranteed" wages, round-the-year employment and the daily unveiling of special plans, you can expect labor leaders to begin developing formulas to ease the transition to disarmament — if, or when, it comes.

There are between 750,000 and 1,000,000 aircraft workers in this country who are largely dependent on huge government defense contracts. If peace really breaks out and these orders are cut back, there will be heavy layoffs.

So Walter Reuther's United Auto Workers Union, which first came up with the heavily publicized Guaranteed Annual Wage, now comes up with a new plan and new initials.

IT MAY MAKE as much noise as the GAW if the aircraft industry fights it. And it might, for the cost of the new CIO formula will run into scores of millions of dollars and perhaps set a costly pattern for the rest of the American defense industries.

We'll soon know. The Auto Union will test its new plan— The Guaranteed Employment Plan Plus Severance Pay in the next few weeks at the Wright Aeronautical Co. in New Jersey. There the union contract covering 20,000 workers expires Sept. 15. Real negotiations for a new pact are under way now, according to Gabe De Angelis, assistant director of the union's Region 9, who heads the UAW bargaining team.

The Guaranteed Employment Plan Plus Severance Pay, as devised by Reuther's technicians, would work this way:

SUPPOSE AN AIRCRAFT plant has 7,000 workers. Its government military contracts are cancelled. It then must lay off a high percentage of its 7,000 men. Let's assume that at least 5,000 of these may never be rehired at this plant. Reuther's proposal is to have the company give them severance pay — at the rate of 40 hours pay for every year they've worked there.

Suppose some of these men have been employed for 10 years in this particular plant. Under Reuther's formula they would then be entitled to 400 hours pay — or about two and a half months' worth of checks to help them while they're seeking new work.

It's difficult to strike an average, but in this example the severance pay could be as much as $1,000 a man.

MEANWHILE, there are some 2,000 men of the original 7,000 who may be rehired by the plant if it gets a small government order to keep it going as a reserve factory. Or the corporation might var yits business and go in for another type of production.

These 2,000 men would then not get severance pay. They would get the type of guaranteed wage which was written into the Ford and General Motors contracts last June and improved upon by the United Steelworkers in the Continental Can pact guaranteeing wages to employes for 52 weeks.

This guaranteed wage is a combination of private company payments and state unemployment insurance.

If the Auto Union succeeds in its latest campaign for company payments to laid off workers, Reuther will make it the pattern for all aircraft plants under contract with his union. From there the pattern can spread in one fashion or another to all parts of the vast multi-billion dollar defense industry.

Keep your eyes on this as you did on the Guaranteed Annual Wage battle

Oddity Almanac

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

The oddity almanac:

If you think today's teen-agers do nothing but hang around street corners, you've got the younger generation all wrong.

HAL BOYLE

A survey by Lester Rand, head of the Youth Research Institute, showed 7 out of 10 American teen-agers hold down part-time jobs or earn money on the side. Their chief sources of income: Working in drug or grocery stores, typing at home, baby sitting, ushering in movies house.

Some 81 per cent of the teen-agers receive a regular weekly spending allowance from their parents, but 3 per cent earn their full support themselves.

Being a teen-ager today, like everything else, costs more than formerly—and it costs more to be a girl than a boy. The survey showed that girls in the 13 to 15 age bracket outspend boys $2.72 a week to $2.11. The weekly spending of girls 16 to 18 years old averages $7.04, that of boys $6.93.

Teen-agers who date regularly spend an average of $5.55 a week on social activity.

OLDTIME RESTAURANTS depressed by the finicky eating habits of today's calorie-conscious patrons, get misty eyed when they recall the knife and fork feats of "Diamond Jim" Brady, the legendary man-about-town a generation ago

"First he'd have a couple of glasses of orange juice at the bar —he never drank liquor. Then he'd begin a meal with two dozen big oysters trimmed with crabs. And he'd enjoy the aroma of cooking while a whole chicken was being broiled over charcoal for him on the chef's wagon beside his table. With the chicken he'd have Virginia ham and mushrooms. He didn't talk much while he ate. He always wore those diamond stubs in his shirtfronts and diamond buttons on his cuffs and vests.

"Nobody would believe how big diamonds really were."

ODDITIES IN THE mailbag: Champagne is regarded by many as an ancient beverage. Actually it was invented by a French monk named Dom Perignon in the 17th century. It isn't true—the old legend that the grapes for the finest wines are pressed by bare feet. Emperor Charlemagne banned the custom as unsanitary in the year 809. Comic Phil Harris says he's read so much about the bad effect of drinking that he's considering giving up reading.

Seagoing Wren Adopted by Sailor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than a year ago a tiny wren fell on a freighter's deck 260 miles at sea.

Harry Clausen, carpenter aboard the American President Lines' Shooting Star, fed the famished and exhausted bird.

He put it in a cage. But soon he allowed it freedom of the ship as the vessel called at Adak, Okinawa, Japan and San Francisco.

In Seattle Clausen took the wren 25 miles inland and turned it loose. Next morning the bird was pecking at Clausen's cabin door for his morning ration.

The bird can keep going to sea with Clausen as long as it wants.

When graduation exercises were held by Grant Hospital School of Nursing in Columbus, three 1952 graduates of Bucyrus High School were among the graduates. The new graduate nurses were Doris Ann Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Orlo Downing, Charlotte Sue Jones, daughter of Mrs. Willis R. Diederick, and Peggy Ann Winsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Winsley.

Miss Downing and Miss Winsley plan to enter Ohio State University in Columbus this fall while Miss Jones will join the staff at Grant Hospital Sept. 4.

Mrs. Donald Craner, Bucyrus, has returned home after spending three weeks with her husband in Fairbanks, Alaska, where her husband is general superintendent for a telephone construction company. While in Fairbanks, the Craners also visited with their son and daughter - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Craner, who are employed there.

—:—

Miss Dorothy Stover of Bucyrus became the bride of Joseph A. Krantz Jr., Bucyrus, in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday night in Rossford Methodist Church by Rev. Forrest Hubbell, pastor of the Rossford Church, and Rev. M. P. Paetznick, pastor of Bucyrus St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The bride, who is society editor of the Bucyrus Telegraph-Forum, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stover of Rossford. Mr. Krantz is the son of Joseph A. Krantz Sr. of New Winchester and the late Mrs. Krantz.

Miss Elizabeth Stover of Rossford, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Seely of Mansfield and Mrs. F. T. Sattler of Bronxville, N. Y. Benjamin Miller of Marion, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Carl Leonberger and George Bender, both of Bucyrus.

Following the ceremony, a reception for approximately 150 guests was held in the Toledo Edison Club at Maumee.

Mrs. Krantz is a graduate of Rossford High School and Bowling Green State University. Mr. Krantz was graduated from Brookville High School at Lynchburg, Va., and also attended Phillips Business College there. He is a tool grinder at the Bucyrus plant of the Timken Roller Bearing Co.

Upper Sandusky

A reception was Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Sweigard in Lovell, near here, in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Sweigard, married Aug. 5 in Spokane, Wash. Serving at the reception were Miss Juanita Pfeifer, Miss Lela Sweigard, Mrs. James Stief, Mrs. Klahr Yambert and Mrs. Charles Pfeifer. A large group of relatives and friends were present.

The bridegroom had been stationed in Washington for several months while on duty with the Air Force.

Galion

Ladies' Day was observed at the Galion Country Club Wednesday. Hostesses, Mrs. George Chyba, Mrs. E. Paul Monroe and Mrs. D. G. Strother, greeted members and guests. Covers were laid for 22. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing cards. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Bert Wilson of Galion and Mrs. A. B. Grafton of Mansfield and canasta prizes by Mrs. Charles Griebling Sr., and Mrs. David Brangaccio.

Out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Thomas Dougherty of Springfield, Mrs. G. E. Kalbfleisch and Mrs. Grafton of Mansfield.

The marriage of Miss Mary Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Evans of Cleveland, and Charles Black, son of Mr. C. F. Black of Galion, is being announced. It was solemnized Aug. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Simpson Methodist Church, Cleveland, followed by a reception for 100 guests in the church parlors.

Mr. Black is a service station operator. He had his brother, Clarence E. Black Jr., as his best man.

Attending the wedding from Galion were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Black and Mr. and Mrs. John Hemminger and daughters, Carol and Audrey.

—:—

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Fink Jr. was learned when the couple arrived here this week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fink.

The new Mrs. Fink is the former Patricia Ann Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Moss of Ferguson, Mo. She and Mr. Fink were married Aug. 1 at the Reen Memorial Evangelical Lutheran Church, St. Louis, by Rev. Millard H. Stiles. Miss Sylvia Pope and Merrill Pope of Ferguson were the attendants.

The couple has been on a wedding trip through the Lake of the Ozarks region in Missouri and at Chicago. They will leave soon for Washington, D. C., where Mr. Fink will be stationed the remainder of his time in service. He is in the U. S. Army and returned recently from a year's tour at the Thule Air Base, Greenland.

Mr. Fink was graduated from Galion High School in 1949 and from Miami University, Oxford, in 1953. Mrs. Fink was graduated from Ferguson High School and has been employed as a stenographer at U. S. Defense Corp. in St. Louis.

Crestline

A lecture on architecture, illustrated with a film, was presented by D. James Crawfis of Mansfield when he appeared Wednesday at the Crestline Kiwanis Club luncheon at the YMCA. L. A. West, club president, assigned members to duties for the annual pancake and sausage supper, Aug. 31 at Hamilton Park. Proceeds from the supper will go to the building fund for the new Memorial Hospital. Seventeen members and two guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Riggs entertained a group of relatives in their home Wednesday honoring his mother, Mrs. John Riggs Sr. in observance of her birthday. Eighteen persons attended.

Carey

Miss Irene Thrower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thrower of Suffolk, England, became the bride of Mervin Eingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eingle of Crawford, on Saturday, Aug. 20, at 4 p.m. in Crawford Methodist Church. Rev. Ted Smith of Wharton officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The only attendants of the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wooten of Nevada.

The bride arrived in the United States from England on July 12 and has been residing with the bridegroom's parents. The young couple met in 1953 while the bridegroom was stationed in England. Mr. Eingle is now employed with the Karg Construction Co. in Upper Sandusky and they will reside for the present with his parents.

Peron Ouster Demanded By Archbishop of Manila

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unless Juan Peron resigns there will be no peace in Argentina, says Archbishop Jose Maria Cuenco of Manila, visiting in Los Angeles after a tour of Central and South America.

"Peron does not permit the public manifestation of the Catholic faith in Catholic Argentina," the Archbishop said. "The people have no freedom of worship. Unless Peron resigns I foresee the outbreak of widespread revolution in that once peaceful country."

Wayne County Disposal Plant Probe Planned

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—The Wayne County prosecutor says he will investigate the possibility of criminal violations in connection with an auditor's report of contract irregularities involving a disposal plant at nearby Dalton.

Prosecutor James K. Leedy received a copy of a state examiner's report declaring work on the plant was only 40 per cent completed although more than 90 per cent of the contract amount had been paid out.

State Auditor James A. Rhodes returned findings of $62,375 yesterday against President Earl H. Harrison and his son, Vice President Richard B. Harrison of E. S. Harrison & Associates, McKeesport, Pa., and a contractor, Earl L. Baughman of Sherrodsville.

The contract provided engineering fees of $24,000 for the Harrison firm, which the examiners called "exorbitant." They reported the elder Harrison had been a licensed engineer only 7 months when the contract began in 1952.

Attorney Ralph Kinsey, who is solcitor for the village of Dalton, said the 26-year-old Richard Harrison signed his name as a "project engineer" although he was not a licensed engineer.

Historian Dies at 92

PROCTORVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Ninety-two-year-old Ellis C. Mace, writer and historian of the Ohio River, died yesterday in a Huntington, W. Va., hospital. A Lawrence County native, he had sailed steamboats on the Ohio, Mississippi and Kanawha Rivers in an era now gone by. He lived in Proctorville.

Summersville Minister Plans Work on Degree

RICHWOOD — Rev. Evangeline Smith will leave the pastorate of the Summersville Friends' Church where she has been pastor for six years.

Rev. Smith, who has been preaching in Logan, Union and Champaign counties for 16 years, plans to attend the graduate school at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., this year working toward a master's degree in Christian education. She will be assistant house director for 160 girls at one of the college dormitories this year.

She was graduated from Marion College, Marion, Ind., with an A. B. degree.

Detroit Company, Springfield Firm Planning Merger

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—J. E. McAdams, president of Steel Products Engineering Co. here, has announced his firm will merge with Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Co., Detroit, under a tentative agreement.

The merger must be approved by Steel Products stockholders, McAdams said. Purchase price was not announced.

Under the merger, McAdams explained, the Steel Products plant will not be moved, although it will continue under Kelsey-Hayes management. No changes in Steel Products personnel or officers will be made, he added.

Steel Products manufactures prototype models, precision gears and transmissions, special machinery and aircraft radar units. Kelsey-Hayes produces auto wheels and related equipment. Kelsey-Hayes has its main plants in Detroit, Jackson, Mich., and McKeesport, Pa., and divisions at Davenport, Iowa, and Los Angeles.

Settlement Is Near In Lorain Walkout

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—A three-week strike at yards of the American Ship Building Co. may have reached the turning point.

Of the 11 AFL craft unions involved, two of the largest at the Lorain yards voted unanimously last night to accept a company offer of 15 cents an hour as a wage increase.

Comparative hourly scales were not available.

Machinists and boiler makers returned the unanimous votes last night. The local yards, where 800 to 900 men often are employed, have been employing only about 210.

Bucyrus Pastor, Wife To Be Honored at Tea

BUCYRUS — Rev. and Mrs. Willis S. Webb will be honored Sunday afternoon by the congregation of First Baptist Church when a double anniversary of the Webbs is observed.

The open house observance and anniversary tea will mark the 40th wedding anniversary of the Webbs and the 40th anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Webb to the ministry.

The Webbs came to Bucyrus five years ago from Toledo.

Lawyer Needed by Bar Assn. To Handle Affairs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The American Bar Assn., says it needs a lawyer to handle its affairs.

The organization's House of Delegates, which molds policy for the ABA's 58,000 members, defeated a suggestion Thursday to change its bylaws and permit appointment of a layman as administrator of its Chicago headquarters.

The proposal had been advanced by the Board of Governors to give it wider discretion in filling the $20,000-a-year post.

Five Will Fight For Cleveland Mayor's Post

CLEVELAND (AP) — Five candidates were in the race today for the $25,000-a-year job of mayor of Cleveland.

They beat a midnight filing deadline to have their names entered on ballots of the Oct. 4 non-partisan primary election. The two receiving the largest vote will run off in the November election, in which ballots also do not carry party designations.

Seeking nomination at the primary were:

The incumbent, Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze, an independent Democrat.

Joseph W. Bartunek, minority leader of the Ohio Senate and choice of the Cuyahoga County Democratic organization.

Alexander H. Martin Jr., independent Democrat and first Negro to run for mayor of Cleveland.

Kermit K. Neely, a city councilman and the Republican county organization's choice.

Robert E. Sweeney, an independent Democrat and former assistant city law director.

Tribe Trailing by Two After Bowing to Rookie 5-2

Yankees' Southpaw Drops Indians in Series Inaugural

By The Associated Press

Ol' Casey Stengel and rookie Rip Coleman were taking the bows for the New York Yankees today, and whether you love 'em or hate 'em, you've got to admit that when the chips are down the Bronx Bombers usually come through.

Manager Stengel calmly selected Coleman, an almost unknown 24-year-old lefty just up from Denver, to oppose the Indians in the first game of their crucial three-game series at Cleveland. The result was a 5-2 Yankee victory. New York now rides in first place by 1½ games over the Chicago White Sox, who dropped a 6-1 decision to the Washington Senators.

The loss dropped Cleveland two full games behind New York. Early Wynn, the Cleveland starter, was hustled to the showers in the second inning after allowing four runs.

Bosox Split

More heat was taken off the Yankees when the best the fourth-place Boston Red Sox could do was split in a doubleheader with the Detroit Tigers. Detroit won the opener 6-1, and Boston grabbed the nightcap 6-4, falling five games behind New York.

In the other American League contest, the Kansas City Athletics conked the Baltimore Orioles 9-2.

The 5-2 victory left the Yanks two-full games in front of the third-place Tribe, while the runnerup Chicago White Sox lost 6-1 to Washington.

Coleman, tossing them hard and a trifle wild, held the Indians to a single run and four hits until the eighth inning, when the Tribe got another run and three hits, and reliefer Bob Grim was called to the mound.

The 24-year-old rookie went into the game with a total major league experience of 5 2-3 innings. All but 1-3 of an inning came last week in his first start, when he pitched the Yankees to a 12-6 triumph over Baltimore.

Wynn Chased

Against Coleman Thursday night was the veteran Early Wynn, who was chased in the second after first baseman Joe Collins clouted a two-run homer, and yielded two other singles that figured in two more runs for the Yanks.

Wynn, who now has a 14-9 record and is 3-2 against the Yanks, issued four walks in his brief appearance—one of them to Coleman that filled the bases in the second.

Reliefer Ray Narleski gave up another run to the Yanks in the sixth, on a homer over the center field fence by Andy Carey.

The Yanks got their five runs on only five hits altogether—and only two hits came after the second inning.

Cleveland could not score against the rookie until the sixth, when Al Rosen smashed his 18th homer of the season over the left field fence. Before that, Coleman yielded only a second-inning double and a fifth-inning single.

The Indians left eight stranded in the first seven frames, including three in the fifth.

In the eighth, Ralph Kiner led off with a double, and after two flied out, he was singled in by Jim Hegan for the Indians' only other run.

Woodling Hit

When George Strickland singled to center, Grim replaced Coleman on the mound and issued a walk, filling the bases. But Bob Avila fouled out to Carey. Grim downed three in a row in the last inning.

Tonight the Yanks send their star performer, Tommy Byrne, against Cleveland's Bob Lemon. Byrne has a 12-3 mark, and Lemon is 13-8.

A pitch by Coleman in the fifth smacked Gene Woodling in the ribs. He stayed in the game until the seventh, when he was removed for a pinch hitter.

Woodling, on his way home after the game, stopped at Lakewood Hospital to have his right side X-rayed. No broken ribs were indicated.

Another Indian, Vic Wertz, reported to the Tribe's infirmary last night. Before the game started, Wertz was running a fever and complained of a headache. Dr. Don Kelly, diagnosing his illness as a 48-hour virus, sent him home.

In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers were slapped down by the Cincinnati Redlegs 8-5 and 6-5. It was the first time the Bums had lost a double bill this year, and coupled with Milwaukee's 3-2 victory over the New York Giants it left the Braves 11 games behind Brooklyn in second place.

Philadelphia nabbed a pair from the St. Louis Cardinals 11-9 and 8-3. The Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1.

Bob Porterfield of Washington won his third game from the White Sox. The Senators knocked out Connie Johnson with a four-run fourth inning, and collected 13 hits in all. Minnie Minoso drove in the only Sox run.

Boone Gets Homer

Ned Garver won the Detroit opener. Ray Boone and Charley Maxwell backed him up with a double and homer apiece, each batting in two runs. The second game was Jackie Jensen's show as he became the first American Leaguer to drive in 100 runs this year. The Boston outfielder accounted for four runs with a homer and bases-loaded single.

Kansas City collected 13 hits, while Art Ceccarelli limited the Orioles to four, including a two-run homer by Hal Smith.

Johnny Klippstein gained his third victory over Brooklyn, but had to be relieved with two out in the ninth inning of the opener by Hershell Freeman. Wally Post slammed his 32nd homer in the second inning to get the Reds off in front. In the nightcap Freeman relieved Joe Black in the seventh, and got credit for his fifth victory although he left for a pinchhitter when the Reds scored two runs to break a 4-4 tie in the ninth.

Philadelphia won its sixth straight, overcoming a six-run deficit in the opener. Robin Roberts registered his 21st victory in the opener, surviving a four-run Card outburst in the first inning and a five-run splurge in the fourth when Wally Moon hoisted a grand-slam homer. Saul Rogovin won the night-

Al Schroll Beaten Despite Two-Hitter

By The Associated Press

Al Schroll pitched a two-hitter for Louisville in the American Association and still lost last night.

The Louisville Colonels ran into a one-hit mound job by lefthander Charlie Gorin and bowed to the Toledo Sox, 2-1.

Omaha made it two straight over league-leading Minneapolis, 7-6, Denver broke a five-game losing streak by whaling St Paul, 11-3, and Indianapolis made it four in a row over Charleston, 3-2, in other games This left Omaha still eight games out of first, with Toledo and Denver another half game back in a virtual tie for third place.

Cleveland's Vic Wertz Hospitalized With Polio

CLEVELAND (AP) — Vic Wertz, hard-hitting Cleveland Indians first baseman and outfielder, has contracted infantile paralysis, Dr Don Kelly, the baseball club's doctor said today.

Wertz, 30, was taken to Lakeside Hospital before Thursday night's game with a fever. He had complained of a headache.

THEY'RE RUNNING NECK AND NECK. Jockey Willie Shoemaker (right) points to the riding grip of his rival Willie Hartack, who sits astride a bench at Washington Park race track near Chicago As of Aug 24, Hartack had ridden 259 winners this year, to 257 for Shoemaker.

Marion Metal Moves to Top Of Industrial Softball League

Local 750 and OSCO, pace setters in Industrial League No. 1 play, were both handed initial second round losses last night at Garfield Park as Marion Metal acquired the top rung.

OSCO bowed to Marion Metal 5-4 and Local 750 fell before McMillen 7-5 Erie No 1's first round champs took it on the chin again in the other game last night, losing to Marion Power Shovel 2-1

Last night's action left Marion Metal leading the loop with a 3-1 mark and Marion Power Shovel, Local 750 and OSCO all tied for second at 2-1.

Marion Metal scored two runs in the top of the seventh and then Trimmer held OSCO scoreless in its half of the frame to post the victory

The winning markers came after two were out. Bud Thorpe struck out the first two Marion Metal batters but Winters and Smith both came up with hits and scored on OSCO errors.

Three runs in the fifth accounted for Marion Metal's other scoring Trimmer, touched for a single run in the third, two in the fifth and one in the sixth, held the losers to six hits. Thorpe gave up seven.

Smith led the hitters with three hits while Curran collected two.

Dwight Wilcox outdueled Jim Kunkle in a pitchers battle in Marion Power Shovel's win over Erie.

Single runs in the second and fourth were enough to give Wilcox the verdict. He allowed only three hits and gave up the lone Erie marker in the second. Kunkle surrendered four hits to Shovel batters.

Two errors gave Shovel its first run in the second and the Shovel nine bunched two hits in the fourth for the winning run

Lindy Walters, Higgins, Gruber and Uline banged out the hits for Shovel

McMillen scored four times in the first on two hits and three walks and never was headed in its win over Local 750.

The winners scored once more in the fifth and two in the sixth while Local 750 got three in the fifth and two in the seventh off Sloat.

Crabtree posted the win on a seven-hit performance while Sloat of the losers was only touched for five safeties

Crabtree led the attack with two hits Gunder had a triple and Heller a double in the first frame and Baggs got the other McMillen hit.

Chiefs' Errors Help Columbus Take 5-3 Win

By The Associated Press

The Montreal Royals can't afford to let up from now to the end of the International League season if they are to edge out Toronto for the pennant. But their ace lefty, Ken Lehman, can hardly be blamed for sitting back today and surveying contentedly his accomplishments of the past week.

Last Thursday Lehman pitched a perfect no hitter against Columbus, four nights later he turned back Syracuse with four hits, last night it was a five-hitter at Buffalo, to win the first game of a doubleheader, 11-0 The record reads: Seven days—three victories—no runs allowed—nine hits yielded Lehman is now 19-9.

Unleashing a devastating hitting attack, the Royals also took the second game from the Bisons 14-4.

The double victory put Montreal back into a virtual tie for first with Toronto, which downed Richmond 6-1 in a single encounter. The Leafs, however, retain a percentage lead, 600 to .599.

Havana had to wait two and a half months to gain a 4-1 victory over Rochester in their suspended game of June 10th After playing off the last inning of the long-delayed contest, the Cubans went on to take the regular game 5-4, coming from behind twice to do it.

In the only other contest, Syracuse's ace hurler, Jim Owens, was touched for four unearned runs as the Chiefs booted away a 5-3 decision to Columbus.

Six-Race Program Set for Speedway

An increased field of cars is expected Sunday at the Marion Speedway as the track stages its fourth week of strictly stock car racing. Last Sunday, 22 cars were on hand with more slated this week.

A six-race program is on tap The card will include three heat races, a consolation event, the figure eight run and a 25-lap feature

Drivers from Marion, Richwood, Upper Sandusky, Bucyrus and Mansfield are expected to start Gates at the track will open at 1 p.m. with the first race scheduled at 3.

Gil Hodges of the Dodgers was the only one of eight pinch hitters who got a hit during the 1955 All-Star Game at Milwaukee. He smacked a single.

2,000 Seek Title Today At Vandalia

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Trapshooting's greatest show — the Grand American Handicap—was on tap today with more than 2,000 of the Western Hemisphere's finest scattergunners fighting it out over the 100-target route for close to $100,000 in prize money.

While the big field was firing in the premiere event, the shooters were still talking about yesterday's merry mixup which left the winner of the preliminary handicap in doubt.

F B Rees, 40-year-old tire salesman from Heyworth, Ill., was the apparent winner after defeating Weldon Hopman of Buckley, Ill., a 23-year-old farmer in a shoot-off Both had led the field of 1,759 with scores of 98x100

However, the executive committee of the Amateur Trapshooting Association (ATA) was investigating a report that Rees should have shot from 21 yards instead of 20 The report of the June 10th Illinois State Shoot at Casey, Ill., credited Rees with a 95 and tie for second place in the handicap there a score which would have moved him back to the 21-yard line.

Under trapshooting rules, a marksmen who wins or places second or ties for either spot in a registered shoot must move back a yard in subsequent events

Rees, however, said the report was erroneous and that he had actually fired a 92 in the state meet and that the 20-yard mark from which he fired yesterday was his correct handicap.

The preliminary championship, a huge trophy and several thousand dollars in prize money, hung in the balance as the executive committee promised a decision today.

Redlegs Surprise Dodgers, Sweep Pair at Ebbets Field

BROOKLYN (AP)—It will be excusable if the Cincinnati Redlegs wear a slightly frustrated look today.

They swept a doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers last night, 8-5, and 6-5, and yet they didn't make up an inch of ground on the fourth place Philadelphia Phils, who also won a double bill from the St Louis Cardinals.

Of course, there is this bright side—the Reds and the Phils each picked up a game and a half on the third place New York Giants so the Rhinelanders are almost as close to third as they are to fourth. They're three and a half games behind Philadelphia and four games behind New York

But beating the Dodgers in both ends of a doubleheader on their own home grounds was just about the most surprising thing the Reds have done this year—coming as it did after two straight defeats at the hands of the last place Pittsburgh Pirates.

It was Brooklyn's first double loss this season and no one seemed to know just how far back in the records you'd have to go to find the last double victory by Cincinnati over Brooklyn. For years the Reds have been one of Brooklyn's favorite "patsies."

Johnny Klippstein got to within one out of going all the way against the Brooks in the opener In the finale, however the Reds had to shoot the works as three of their regular starting pitchers saw action before they finally pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth inning

Wally Post's 32nd home run of the season sent the Cincinnatians away in front in the second inning of the first game.

Post and Rocky Bridges each drove in two runs as the Reds built their margin to 8-3 going into the last of the ninth. Then Klippstein bogged down and Hershell Freeman had to bail him out. Two walks and Gil Hodges' single scored two runs and brought Freeman in to retire pinch hitter George Shuba for the final out.

Gus Bell was the big Cincinnati hero in the early part of the second game. His single, following a walk and Ted Kluszewski's double resulted in two runs in the opening inning and his homer with Post on base scored two more in the sixth.

Joe Black gave up a home run to Rube Walker in the second and then had the situation well under control until the seventh when the Dodgers suddenly erupted for three runs to tie the count Walker's two-run double was the big blow.

Two walks, a single by Bob Thurman, pinchhitting for relief pitcher Hershell Freeman, and a sacrifice fly brought in the last two Cincinnati runs in the ninth.

Art Fowler, who had followed Freeman to the mound, gave up a walk and a single to start the ninth. That brought Joe Nuxhall to the mound and three infield outs ended the game with only one run scoring.

With two victories already racked up, Manager Birdie Tebbetts planned to gamble a bit tonight by starting rookie Don Gross and the Dodgers, as a rule, thrive

Squad Dwindles

Pair of Veterans Leave Harding's Football Camp

Two veteran performers were the latest losses at the Harding High School grid camp today as injuries and departures continued to pile up.

Pete Schnaufer and Don Caprino, both lettermen from last year's squad have left the team, Coach Gordon Larson said today. He reported both had turned in their uniforms because "they had no desire to play."

Larson's squad continues to dwindle with five hopefuls on the injury list. At least 10 others have left the squad for the reason used by Schnaufer and Caprino.

Larson's first big loss came early this week with the announcement that Bob Shaffer would not be available. The speedy backfield candidate has moved to Wapakoneta.

Meanwhile, injuries have slowed down practice sessions. Most serious of the injuries is a stretched knee ligament suffered by Dick Penry. He is in Marion General Hospital for treatment. Other injuries are confined to "bumps and bruises," Larson said.

Larry Coy is recovering from a pulled thigh muscle, Jed Middleton, a knee injury, Tex Burns, a chin bruises and Gary Huber injured shoulder.

Larson is currently working with a squad of only 47 candidates, he said.

He reported today he and the rest of his aides were "trying to get the team timed up" where they "can get them going as a unit." He added that he was still in the experimental stage.

Fears Injuries

'Extremely Light' Buckeye Eleven Forecast by Hayes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The coach of Ohio State's Big Ten, Rose Bowl and national football champions believes "too many people who don't know what they're talking about are sounding off for a few paltry dollars and influencing millions of people against football."

Woody Hayes didn't mention any names when he urged more stress on "the wholesome aspects of football" at last night's annual kickoff fete.

But the OSU coach, starting his fifth season at the Buckeye helm, said he referred specifically to "an eastern college president who has never been president at a school where they played football."

"Too many people are taking pot shots at football," Hayes told the group of writers, sportscasters, university officials and fans. "Football is a great game, and it makes great men. But too many people, with little or no real knowledge of the game, are all the time sounding off and influencing people against it."

Hayes reviewed his 1955 prospects in detail and give a rundown on each position.

"We'll be extremely light," he said, "lighter than we've ever been since I've been here at Ohio State. We won't be as good as last year, and because we'll be light, we'll probably have a lot more injuries."

But Hayes said that in the past, lighter teams often have had what he called more "staying power."

Michigan, with 25 lettermen returning and a solid freshman club, will be the team to beat, with Iowa and Wisconsin "very strong," the Buckeye coach predicted. He described Indiana as a "dark horse," and Minnesota and Purdue as contenders. Northwestern had a good spring drill and Illinois will be much improved with a strong passing attack, Hayes added.

The Buckeyes have 19 lettermen returning this season, not including tackle Bob Whetstone, the Barberton boy who received a letter in 1953 but was ineligible last season.

The Bucks lost 16 lettermen by graduation. Another, fullback Hubert Bobo, was a classroom casualty.

Hayes said the 1955 backfield will have "relatively good depth." "Our tackles are the big problem," Woody said. "We are going to have the lightest tackles in the Big Ten, and a couple of boys are going to have to come through before we can do much."

Hayes said this is his tentative starting lineup:

Ends, Bill Michael of Hamilton and Leo Brown of Portsmouth; tackles, Dick Guy of Mansfield and Francis Machinsky of New Salem, Pa.; guards, Jim Parker of Toledo and Dave Weaver of Hamilton; center Ken Vargo of Martins Ferry; quarterback, Frank Ellwood of Dover; halfbacks, Howard Cassady of Columbus and Jerry Harkrader of Middletown, and fullback, Don Vicic of Euclid.

The Buckeyes open the season Sept. 24 against Nebraska at Ohio Stadium.

Babe Zaharias Awaits Release From Hospital

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Babe Zaharias, the famed woman athlete, has finished X-ray treatments for removal of a cancer and expects to be out of the hospital "before too long," she said Thursday night.

Mrs. Zaharias, who underwent an operation for a rectal cancer in April of 1953 and returned to winning big-time golf in four months, had to have another operation in May, this time for a displaced disc. When this was done another cancer was discovered in the pelvic bone.

The X-ray treatments were started about three weeks ago.

She is able to move about her hospital room and last week was taken for a drive by her husband, George Zaharias.

She said when she got out of the hospital she would go to her home in Beaumont.

"She will return to golf," said Zaharias as the Babe nodded assent.

BEST RIFLE SHOT. Mrs. Viola Pollum, won the national small bore rifle championship at Camp Perry, O., the first woman in history to accomplish the feat. The 43-year-old dress shop operator from Brookville, Pa., scored 6,390 points out of a possible 6,400 in the four-day match, one point better than runnerup Charles Whipple of Somerset, Pa.

Mrs. Buettin Captures '55 Women's Golf Title

Mrs. B. H. Buettin is the 1955 women's golf champion at the Marion Country Club.

She downed Mrs. Del Martin 7 and 5 Tuesday in the Class A championship flight final of the club championship.

Championships in the Class B and C flights are yet to be determined. Mrs Don Yoder opposes Mrs. James McNoldy in the Class B final and Mrs. Paul Kohler is matched with Mrs. Joe Jenkins in the Class C championship.

HIRED AT MARENGO

MARENGO — Donald Fisher of Columbus has been hired as football and baseball coach at Marengo to succeed Al DeCola who has resigned. Fisher has had two years of teaching experience in the Ashland schools and one year in the Mansfeld school system. He is a graduate of Ohio State University.

Dr. H. N. Alford of Atlanta, ATA president, said as far as he knows no one has ever been disqualified from a Grand American event in its 56-year-old history.

Mae Ramey, Miamisburg, Ohio, gun club owner, took the women's title with a 93 bagged from the 19-yard marker.

The junior championship was won by Samuel H. Kerr, 15-year-old Steubenville, Ohio, high school sophomore, who broke 96 from 19 yards. Delaware's John B. Cottrell, 15-year-old Wilmington boy scout, was second with 94.

The professionals didn't do as well as the amateurs. Cliff Doughman, Morrow, Ohio, shot only 91 from 26 yards to pace that group. Second place went to Tom Fye, Sandusky, Ohio, who got 86 from 25 yards.

The 2,000 shooters in today's Grand American tossed $35,000 into the regular prize fund. And if all of them play the optional, another $66,000 would be up for grabs with the ultimate winner picking up around $8,000, unless tied in the regular shoot.

The winner also receives a diamond-studded medal, a huge trophy and a chest of silverware, along with his guaranteed $1,500 first prize.

Last year's shoot drew a record 2,009 marksmen from Canada to the Canal Zone. ATA officials predicted 2,050 would compete today. Yesterday's preliminary drew 1,759, breaking last year's record by 30.

The shooters will fire from 18 to 27 yards back of the trap from which the clay targets emerge. To take care of the heavy entry, the starting time was moved up to 8:30 a.m.

Semifinal Play Set Today for Women's Event

CHARLOTTE, N C. (AP)—The uprising of the teen-agers had been put down and golf's "middle seniors," as Jane Nelson refers to the group in their 20s, had taken complete charge of the Women's National Amateur Golf Tournament heading into this afternoon's semifinals.

The first 18-hole match paired Miss Nelson, a relaxed, wisecracking 27-year-old history teacher from Indianapolis, against Mrs Scott Probasco Jr., Chattanooga, Tenn., 25-year-old mother.

The other match paired Polly Riley, advertising specialist from Fort Worth, Tex., who'll be 29 tomorrow, against Pat Lesser, 22, a Seattle University senior Misses Nelson and Lesser scorched the 6,413-yard Myers Park Country Club Course with the best performances of the week in Thursday's quarter-finals. Each was 3 under par in an impressive victory. Jane trimmed 20-year-old Barbara McIntire, Toledo, Ohio, 5 and 3, and Pat smothered Mrs H. S. Covington, Orangeburg, S C., 7 and 6.

Mrs. Probasco and Miss Riley had to travel all the way, each gaining a hard-earned 1-up victory. Mrs Probasco, who as Betty Rowland of Lexington, Ky., and Rollins College, was national intercollegiate champion a few years ago, was 2 down with four holes to play but rallied to edge 17-year-old Anne Quast, Marysville, Wash

Miss Riley ousted 18-year-old Margaret (Wiffi) Smith, St Clair, Mich., in a grim struggle that saw Polly unable to win a hole after the 10th as they halved the last six in an unyielding struggle.

cap as the Phils came from behind again. It was Del Ennis night, and he celebrated by getting three hits in the opener and a double in the second game.

Hearn Routed

It appeared as if Jim Hearn would beat the Braves, but Milwaukee routed him in the seventh inning with all their runs on three walks and two singles. Warren Spahn tossed a six-hitter at the Giants.

Ramon Mejias doubled in the eighth at Pittsburgh and Johnny O'Brien singled to break up a 1-1 pitching duel between the Bucs' Roy Face and Paul Minner.

Brooklyn Star Rips Action of Dodgers' Fans

BROOKLYN (AP) — Brooklyn fans don't deserve the National League pennant in the opinion of Duke Snider, the Dodgers' centerfielder whose average has dropped from .331 to 299.

There were boos from the stands Thursday night as Snider collected only one hit in two losing games to the Cincinnati Redlegs.

"They are the worst fans in baseball," said Snider after the game. "They don't deserve the pennant." Then he added as an after thought, "that is why we are going to Jersey City next year."

The Dodgers will play seven of their games in Jersey City next year.

WINS LONG TITLE

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Washington's star hurler, Reggie Bolden, allowed only one hit—a scratch single in the first inning—in hurling a 4-0 victory over Youngstown (Ohio) last night in the championship game of the Pony League World Series.

Hidden Trap

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP) — Golfers in this section finally have discovered what happened to those nine drives that kept disappearing on the municipal golf course.

A storm knocked down a rotten apple tree and 11 golf balls were found in the hollow trunk.

The Curse That Failed

TANGANYIKA British East Africa

We call it the "Zoo Parade" curse. It is hitting all around us. First it stuck needles in the inverters. I have no idea what an inverter does, but without it there is no sound equipment. For 48 hours, until fresh inversion was flown in from Nairobi, the crew was immobilized.

JOHN CROSBY

"The curse is upon us," we exclaimed nervously. "God knows where it will strike next. Where is the nearest witch doctor?" This is a land of superstition and you pick it up easily like ticks.

The next victim was the sound man himself who was felled, moaning with fever, by malaria. Within a matter of hours the curse struck again. Another member of our party came down with rheumatic fever which is no laughing matter.

"TAMBBIKA IMETUPIGA," we exclaimed nervously, lapsing easily into Swahili because we had been here several days. "Mungu ajua nani atafuata. Wapi mganga?"

And that's the way things went—just one thing after another (and, if that can be rendered into Swahili, I don't know how to do it.) Us and our curse, it has even affected poor Willie de Bear, one of the great animal catchers of Africa, who rues the day he encountered us. That day Willie had caught a white steinbuck, a beast so rare that it's doubtful if there are any in captivity. The next day—after meeting us naturally—the beast escaped.

Since then he has had one heartbreaking experience after another with giraffes. Willie is seeking a giraffe roughly eight feet tall. The first one he caught was seven and a half feet tall, six inches too short. He let it go. The second one was ten feet high, six inches—too big for his crates. He let it go, too.

Today we came upon one that just outran and outwitted us, an experience so extraordinary that it can be explained only by the supernatural. Obviously the beast was bewitched.

THIS IS AN NBC safari and sooner or later suspicion was bound to come. "It's CBS that has laid the hex on us, those L$c)?'!!" the NBC lads exclaimed angrily, lapsing easily back into English which, in many ways, is a more expressive language.

This suspicion was given great impetus the other night. We were listening to the radio which is our only contact with the outside when the newscaster (and if it isn't Ronald Colman, Colman ought to sue for plagiarism) announced that there were nine television crews beating the bushes of East Africa in search of TV material for the cameras.

We had thought we were alone out here an dit turns out there are eight other TV safaris on the march. Even the zebras will be getting ulcers. If one of the other safaris is CBS, the NBC mob is ready. They have hired a mchawi (That's a bad witch doctor: a mganga is a good one) and, unless this guy is stringing them along, there should be a plague of locusts descending on 485 Madison Ave. at this very moment.

THE CURSE STRUCK again yesterday in a very distressing way. A lady of this party lost her handbag. You may say this is an everyday occurrence, but this one wasn't. In the handbag was her own and her husband's passports, money, travelers checks and airplane tickets home. She had dropped it somewhere in the middle of the plain where we had been giraffe hunting.

As African plains go, this is a small one — only a hundred or so miles one way and a hundred or so miles the other way and enclosed on all sides by the horizon. Somewhere out there was her handbag.

Now I have groped in the back of dark taxicabs for one earring and felt under theater seats for one lady's glove. This was my first experience hunting for one handbag in an African plain.

Our hunter, Geoffrey Lawrence-Brown, and I leaped into a land rover and took off. Geoffrey tackled the problem as if it were a rhino, sniffing the air, reading the telltale hoof marks of the lady's car, and keeping downwind.

Well we tracked for hours. Geoffrey using all the wiles of 20 years' experience in the bush. No handbag. Meanwhile, others joined us and you could see them, little specks on the horizon searching the ground for a lady's handbag.

Finally, Willie, the master hunter, took up the trail now thoroughly confused by hundreds of criss-crossing wheel - prints and darned if he didn't find the thing. It only cost half a day's shooting.

STILL, I FEEL strongly that finding the handbag has broken the curse. Our mganga is getting the upper hand over CBS' mchawi. A bunch of us visited the rheumatic fever victim yesterday and he's mending rapidly and should rejoin us in another four days. The malaria sufferer is already back with his beloved tape - recording machines.

Things, in short, are looking up. The pictures are getting taken. The inverters are working splendidly. And all around me as I write this, arises the happy click of typewriters which means the stricken ones are back at work on their African novels.

There are about five of them in the process of being written and they are entitled variously "The Smell of the Rising Wind," "The Deepening Shadows," "The Darkening Plain," "Furv Below the Equator" and "Africa, My Africa." That last one is being written by the lady who lost her handbag and after that incident, I rather think she's going to do something about that title.

Parole Is Violated, Woman Sentenced

Velma Mahoney of Findlay, who last year was placed on probation by Common Pleas Court on a narcotics charge, Thursday was ordered sent to the Marysville Reformatory for one year by Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith.

Miss Mahoney was sent to the reformatory for violating terms of her probation, court officials reported. She, along with four other persons were arrested in Marion in June, 1954 and charged with obtaining narcotics by fraud.

The woman entered a plea of guilty and was placed on probation, given a suspended fine of $100 and ordered to pay court costs of $100.

Court officials reported the woman had failed to pay the court costs and had changed her place of residence without notifying the court. She will be removed to Marysville in the near future, officials said.

Eggs on Demand

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Harry Kauffman, poultry specialist for Pennsylvania State University, says farmers producing eggs for a local market can fix production schedules to equalize monthly output.

One flock of chickens hatched in winter and another flock hatched in June will help to equalize monthly production, Kauffman explained.

Workhouse Trusty Accused of Hiding Prisoners' Escape

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jack M. McGrath, 31-year-old city workhouse trusty, is scheduled for a preliminary hearing today on a charge of aiding and inducing a prison escape. Authorities said he admitted smuggling two hacksaw blades to one of seven men who broke out of the workhouse Saturday.

McGrath, authorities said, told them he was promised $5 worth of commissaries for the blades. He said he picked up the blades from establishments outside the institution and delivered them to inmate Virgil Van Hoose, 33, Columbus.

Van Hoose and six others escaped by sawing through three bars of a dormitory window. Five, including Van Hoose, were recaptured. Two are still missing.

Four escapees were given additional jail terms and fines yesterdayy in municipal court. Mrs. Thelma Lebo, 52, Mansfield, mother of escapee Robert McDaniel, still at large, and William F. Stolzenberger, 33, Columbus, pleaded innocent to charges of aiding and abetting a fugitive. They were freed under $1,000 bond pending a Sept. 1 hearing.

Pair on 'First Honeymoon'

Divorce Action Dropped, Airman, Wife Reconciled

DELAKE, Ore. (AP)—Airman Daniel Schmidt and his wife Una were enjoying what they called their "first honeymoon" at a coastal resort cottage here today.

Schmidt, 23, and Una, 20, were reunited in Portland late Wednesday, nearly a week after he had filed suit for divorce in Red Bluff, Calif. He came home recently after 2½ years in a Communist Chinese prison camp and was told she had remarried.

Agrees To Reconsiliation

He agreed to a reconciliation in a telephone call from his wife in San Jose, Calif.

He sent her plane fare and she arrived at the home of his mother Mrs. Ray Peters in Portland, about 90 miles northeast of here. After spending Wednesday night there they drove here, not disclosing their destination.

The Associated Press located them late Thursday night in a cottage off beautiful Devils Lake and Schmidt said, "We are very, very happy.

"We have no definite plans. We're just going to enjoy ourselves for awhile."

Schmidt said he was overjoyed to see his son Daniel Jr., 3, for the first time. The child was born while he was overseas. Una brought him from California to Portland, where he remained today with Schmidt's mother.

Mother Returns Home

Una's mother Mrs. Walter Ferguson, who accompanied Schmidt from California for his reunion with his mother Tuesday, left Thursday night by bus for her home in Red Bluff. She said she left her car, in which they made the trip, so that Danny, Una and the child could visit her.

Mrs. Ferguson denied she ever had urged Schmidt to divorce her daughter.

Schmidt and Una had been married only a few weeks before he was sent overseas as a B29 crewman in the Korean War and was shot down and captured.

Schmidt confirmed that he dropped his plan to divorce Una. She said lumberjack Alford Fine, whom she said she had married in the belief Schmidt was dead, is "definitely out of the picture."

Attorneys in Portland said the marriage to Fine "never existed legally" because she was married to Schmidt.

Service Station Entered

A break-in during the night at the Beringer Gulf Service station at the junction of Routes 95 and 529 east of Marion is under investigation this morning by the sheriff's office.

Deputies reported the break-in occured some time during the night and was discovered this morning. They said the only thing which appeared missing on first investigation is some ice cream which was in the station.

Killed Under Tractor

SALEM, Ohio (AP)—Leo Gerami, 29, East Liverpool, was killed last night when a farm tractor he was driving overturned on a Columbiana County road, about a half-mile west of Ohio 267, the state highway patrol reported.

Red Radio Stations Continuing To Jam VOA's Broadcasts

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Soviet stations kept up their customary jamming of the Voice of America today while the U. S. goverment station repeated a broadcast to Russia by the head of Russian farm delegation in America.

Engineers at the VOA's relay station here reported "no preceptible change" in Soviet jamming during Russian-language broadcasts by Vladimir Matskevich, Soviet first deputy minister of agriculture who led the Russian farm tour of the United States.

Matskevich said in his broadcast that the Russian farm delegation had received "a friendly and hospitable welcome" in the United States and had seen "useful things that may be applied in the state and collective farms of the Soviet Union."

Nashua Arrives in Style For Race With Swaps

CHICAGO (AP)—Nashua today arrived—in style—at the scene of his match race against Swaps next Wednesday.

The horse came from New York in special car attached to a New York Central passenger train.

Nashua will go against Swaps at Washington Park in a $100,000, winner-take-all race.

Use the Want Ads

Here are four easy ways to lose money!

1. When you go out at night, don't bother to check your windows and doors.
2. Don't leave a light burning when the house is temporarily empty.
3. Don't stop milk and newspaper deliveries while you're on vacation.
4. Above all, don't carry Burglary Insurance!

But if you want to save money, take every precaution—and above all make sure you're protected with low-cost Hartford Residence Theft and Burglary Insurance. (Actually, there are more burglaries than fires!)

RESOLUTION NO. 3949

RESOLUTION DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE EAST GEORGE STREET BY THE CONSTRUCTION OF A SANITARY SEWER WITH NECESSARY HOUSE LATERALS BEGINNING AT THE END OF THE EXISTING SANITARY SEWER AND RUNNING EAST AS FAR AS POSSIBLE, EXISTING SEWER SERVICE TO END AT ALLEY ON EAST SIDE OF LOT NO. 214.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Marion, State of Ohio, three-fourths of all members elected thereto concurring:

Section 1. That it is necessary to improve East George by the construction of a sanitary sewer with necessary house laterals, beginning at the end of the existing sanitary sewer and running east as far as possible, existing sewer service to end at alley on east side of lot 214.

Section 2. That the grade of East George Street as improved shall be as shown by the Engineer's plans and profiles which are made a part hereof.

Section 3. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement heretofore prepared by the Engineer and now on file in the office of the Director of Public Service be and the same are hereby approved.

Section 4. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth and the cost of intersections shall be assessed, by the foot front upon the following described lots and lands, to-wit: All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specially benefited by said improvement and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and Ordinances required, and the serving of said notice, and the cost of construction together with interest on notes and bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Section 5. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in ten (10) semi-annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be borne by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option pay such assessment in cash within thirty days after the passage of the assessing Ordinance.

Section 6. That bonds of the City of Marion, shall be issued in anticipation of the collections and assessments by installments in an amount equal to the cost assessed by the foot front referred to in Section 4 hereof; and notes—of said City shall be issued in anticipation of the issue of such bonds.

Section 7. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement not specially assessed, including the cost of intersection together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein purchased or appropriated and the cost and expenses of any appropriations proceeding therefore, and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest thereon, and the costs and expense of any such award shall be paid out of the General Fund.

Section 8. This Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

THE DANGER OF A HEARING LOSS
Why is it harmful to delay? If there is the slightest risk that the deafness is progressive, action must be taken to forestall social, temperamental and mental damage. Prevention is much easier and more effective than patching up after the worst has happened.

Dad Puts Stop To Son's Goal Of Being Pilot

THE PAS, Man. (AP)—Tom Lamb has put his foot down. Six pilots in one family, he says, are enough.

His youngest son, 18-year-old Connie, would like to be a pilot along with his dad and five brothers.

"But we've got enough pilots in the family now," says Tom. "I want him to be a veterinarian."

So Tom has sent his youngest to Seattle to take a veterinarian's course. Eventually he will manage Tom's 54,000-acre cattle and muskrat ranch at Moose Lake, 25 miles east of this northern gateway town.

Father and the other sons will look after Lamb Airways, Ltd., a unique four-plane family air service operating out of The Pas to far-flung points in Northern Canada. Early bush pilots taught Tom how to fly and he soon was flying fish into The Pas from the surrounding district.

"When I saw there was a few dollars to be made in this business, I decided to form my own company," he said.

That was in 1935. Now 57, Tom is still flying.

Married in 1925, he has nine children. The three oldest are Sheila, 28, married and in Seattle; Carol, 27, also married and running Tom's trading post with her husband at Moose Lake, and Phyllis, 26, wife of Cal Gibson, the airways' office manager.

After them came the boys. Greg, 24, is chief pilot and assistant manager. The other pilots are Dennis and Don, 22-year-old twins, Jack, 21, and Doug, 19.

Missing Detroit Boy, 4, Found in Refrigerator

DETROIT (AP)—Missing for two hours, 4-year-old Gary Patterson was found jammed between two narrow shelves when his mother opened the refrigerator Thursday night to get a bottle of milk.

Nine-days-old baby sister Linda had cried for food. This may have saved Gary's life.

The boy's disappearance had touched off a police search.

"He was frothing at the mouth when I found him," Mrs. Thomas Patterson said.

Taken to a nearby hospital, Gary was warmed and sent home.

He couldn't explain how he wedged himself into the narrow shelf space but he insisted:

"Somebody shut the door on me."

EMPLOYED AT IBERIA

Mrs. Marie Baker of 695 Mt. Vernon Ave. has been re-employed as school dietician, home economics and ninth grade English teacher at Iberia. She is also sponsor of the school's Future Homemakers of America chapter.

50-Year Member Feted By IOOF in Caledonia

Ira Lee, a 50-year-member, was honored Tuesday night when the Caledonia IOOF Lodge met.

Attending the meeting was District Deputy Grand Master Eugene Fogle of Richwood. A 50-year jewel was presented to Lee.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the banquet room and a social hour was conducted. Visitors from Richwood and other lodges in the district were present.

LEAVES FOR HONDURAS

BUCYRUS — Miss Sofia Kalerguis, an employe of the Second National Bank here, will leave by plane from Cleveland Sunday for her first visit to Honduras, her nativeland, since she came here in May, 1950, to live with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gasuras. A dinner in honor of her trip was held at Morton's Motel Restaurant here Tuesday night by her associates at the bank.

Driver Goes to Training School in Lieu of a Fine

ATLANTA (AP) — Alex Lane, 21-year-old Negro, was in traffic court Thursday charged with driving 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Judge Charles Wofford asked Lane how he pleaded.

"Guilty — scared — broke — and I got four children," answered Lane.

Judge Wofford ordered Lane to attend the court's driver training school in lieu of paying a fine.

Hughes Associate Wed

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Honeymooning today are Noah Dietrich, 66, wealthy industrialist and associate of Howard Hughes, and Mrs. Mary Alice Brewer, 34. They were married Thursday in Mrs. Brewer's home by Judge Henry L Draeger.

It was Dietrich's third marriage, the second for Mrs. Brewer. They will go to Europe in November on a delayed honeymoon.

Green Camp Staff Meeting Scheduled

The 1955-56 school year at Green Camp will open Monday, Sept. 5, with a teachers' meeting at 2 p.m. at the school.

Classes will be conducted for a half-day session on Tuesday, Sept. 6, beginning at 9 a.m. The cafeteria will open on Wednesday, Sept. 7, the first full day of classes.

Two teachers are still needed at the school. The posts of social studies and science teacher and commercial instructor are still vacant, Superintendent Norman Roettger reported.

Movies Are Fine

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Police Judge Edward G. Burleson handed out complimentary movie tickets to one group of traffic violators arraigned in his court. He wanted them to see "The Devil Take Us," a traffic safety film at a downtown theatre.

College Graduates Meet Discrimination Problem

CHICAGO (UP) — A college education doesn't mean that a job applicant won't meet with discriminatory restrictions, according to a survey of 47 university and college placement offices in Illinois.

Prof. Charles E. Howell, chairman of the Illinois Committee on Discrimination in Higher Education, said the survey, based on a one-year study in the state, showed that business jobs had the most discriminatory strings attached. He said teaching positions had the fewest.

Howell rated the instances of prejudice in ths order: racial, religious, national origin.

"Seventy per cent of the colleges repofting received job offers which contained discriminatory qualifications for applicants," Howell said.

The committee got replies from 47 of 80 offices queried.

Sinatra Ousted From Key Role In New Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frank Sinatra has been replaced by Gordon Macrae in the lead role "Carousel," 20th Century Fox Studio's film version of the Rogers and Hammerstein musical.

Sinatra didn't report for work at the "Carousel" location at Booth Bay, Maine, this week Thursday night the studio announced that Macrae was given the role. He was instructed to report to the studio Monday for pre-recording sessions.

On Sept. 2 he will fly to Booth Bay for three weeks' shooting Shirley Jones, Macrae's co-star in "Oklahoma," will play opposite him.

Sinatra told newsmen in the East that he left the location because the film is being photographed in two processes He said he did not intend to make two pictures at once.

Good Samaritan Turns Robber to Tune of $270

SANDWICH, Ill. (AP) — A good Samaritan turned robber and took $270 from Robert Dieterline.

It happened this way, related police chief Carl Water:

Dieterline, of Sandwich, had a flat tire Wednesday near Sandwich. A motorist stopped to help After they repaired the tire, the unidentified motorist kicked Dieterline in the stomach and took his wallet containing $270.

Dieterline scribbled the license number of the fleeing auto on a towel But he couldn t read his scribbling when he went to police to report the robbery.

In 1807, the Clermont, first successful commercial steamboat transported 14 people from New York to Albany on the Hudson River on its first trip.

THE U.S. LABEL LAWS PROTECT YOU

It is a federal offense to label a product falsely!

No label can say "only imported hops" unless only imported hops are used.

(On the other hand the government permits use of words like "finest" and "best" in advertising of even the cheapest beers.)

DAS TROCKEN LAGER

is brewed only with imported Auslese hops... by its original braumeister

Wunderbräu is the favorite brew of a German-born braumeister who, before he became a Captain in the U. S. Army in World War II, brewed two of Europe's most famous beers. (His father, before him, grew special hops for the finest German beers.) In this country, he is using his original recipe and the selfsame Auslese hops, imported here exclusively for Wunderbräu.

Auslese hops have far more of the delicate, true beer flavor and aroma. The only other beer brewed in America with all-imported hops like these is a very expensive draught beer never sold in bottles. (Auslese hops cost twice as much as domestic hops.)

So naturally Wunderbräu is going to taste better to you. The color is brilliant, the body light and refreshing, the head smooth and creamy. And that flavor from Auslese hops? No one can describe flavor. You have to taste it for yourself. But we do think that any real beer drinker will say, "Wunderbrau is the kind of beer you could drink all evening."

Sincerely,

Tom Kenrich

PRESIDENT

In 12 oz. and Full Quart Bottles, in Cans, and on Draught

Wunderbrau is now being distributed to all stores and taverns in this area as fast as possible. If your dealer is temporarily out of Wunderbrau, please try again. Dealers requiring special delivery orders may call Kenton Beer Distributors, Harris Street, Kenton, Ohio, Telephone: 6267

Basil Walters Speaks to AP

Knight Newspapers' Editor Hails Freedom

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Basil L. Walters of Chicago, executive editor of the Knight Newspapers Inc., said last night that "the greatest safeguard to our freedoms lies in guaranteeing that journalists form their own minds."

"And they in turn must recognize the right of the readers to make up their own minds," he said in a prepared address before the Middle Atlantic States fifth regional meeting of the Associated Press.

Walters spoke at a dinner winding up the first day of the two-day meeting which attracted some 100 editors, publishers and their wives.

Walters made a "fervent plea" to the editors to "debate the possibilities of making significant news of the coming political campaigns so interesting that people will read it.

"While we must keep in mind that our first obligation is to the readers and to the voters, we must not be permitted to become panicked into being dull and stupid by some thought - paralyzing phrases such as 'one-party press' invented by political press agents."

He said it was proper that the press be subjected to criticism and debate, but he said it should resist efforts to convert such criticism into censorship and regulation.

Brothers Sentenced

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Robert and Trent Boyes, convicted of robbing three midwestern banks, including the Stebbins National Bank of Crest on in Wayne County, Ohio, were sentenced yesterday to 50 years each in federal prison. The two brothers looted $4,700 from the Wayne County Bank on May 24. In their three bank jobs, authorities said they netted $27,000.

FLYING TARGET DRONE PASSES SPEED TEST. Fastest and most elusive target drone, the Firebee is shown (left) streaking away on its own after being dropped from the bomb bay of an Air Force B-26 "mother" plane during a test over Alamogordo, N M Capable of being launched from either the air or the ground, the Firebee is guided by remote control It has a maximum speed of 610 m.p.h. and can remain in flight an hour and 20 minutes at an altitude of 40,000 feet. Also, it can climb at the spectacular rate of 6,500 feet per minute. At night, the Firebee is safe on the ground after a parachute recovery drop.

Two Witnesses Back Sheriff in Jackson Trial

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—Two witnesses in the trial of Jackson County Sheriff David L. Trago have lent support to the sheriff's testimony that he was not in Gallipolis when a young airman says Trago made immoral proposals to him.

One witness, A. O. Harbert, a Jackson constable, testified he saw Trago at 6.10 p m. on July 1 in Jackson, the date and about the time the prosecution accuses the sheriff of making the alleged proposals.

Another witness, Jerry Scarberry, 15, testified Trago left his father's auto lot in Jackson about 4.25 p m the same day.

Trago has denied the charge brought by the mother of 17-year-old Gallipolis Airman, David L Hatfield, that the sheriff contributed to the delinquency of her son Trago has testified he was in Jackson at the time of the alleged offense.

Family Comes First

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Eighteen years ago Joseph Moreau, Vancouver, B C, carpenter, visited Los Angeles. He liked it and decided to come back.

Thursday he returned this time for good He brought with him his wife and nine children.

"I didn't want to leave Vancouver before I got started with a family," he explained at the airport.

Industry Readjusts

Rising Production Costs Reflected in Price Boosts

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — More price hikes this week spotlight industry's "rolling readjustment" to rising production costs.

Agriculture, on the other hand, continues to adjust to surpluses, price weakness, and lower farm incomes.

Going up in price this time are such things as work clothes, tractors, building materials, sporting goods, haircuts, sheets, the ingredients of soap, some chemicals and, almost certainly, soft coal.

"Rolling readjustment" became a popular postwar term to denote now various industries reacted at various times—and rarely together—to inflation and to degrees of good and hard times.

NOW, MOST industries are faced with rising labor costs and some also find the cost of their raw materials rising. Prices creep up here and there—first at the manufacturing level and then cautiously at the retail level. The caution is due to management's healthy respect for the keen competition among rival firms and the bargain hunting habit of consumers.

Food costs have held pretty steady. A few things, like canned peaches, may go up, because of last spring's late freeze, but wholesale food prices as a whole are nicely below last year's level.

CLOSEST TO THE home pocketbook, however, will be the rise in work clothes, sheets, and some other textile items. Apparel makers say rising production costs have caused recent price hikes in work clothes and fabrics. Going up have been suede, denim and canton flannel.

Still further price hikes may lie ahead when the minimum wage boost to $1 an hour from 75 cents goes into effect next March. Many hosiery makers as well as some work clothing makers will be affected.

In some midwest cities the price of a haircut is going up to $1.75 on weekdays and $2 on Saturdays.

Makers of golf clubs plan a hike of as much as 10 per cent in next year's prices. Other sporting goods may also rise in response to increased costs of labor and materials.

Wyandot County's School Executives Reorganize Group

UPPER SANDUSKY — At the reorganizational meeting Monday in Upper Sandusky the members of the Wyandot County Superintendents Association elected the following officers: president, Charles Maddox; vice president, Robert Strahm; secretary, Charles Shell.

The new school heads this year are Ray Stair, principal of Antrim, and Richard Blancett, Mifflin-Kirby.

All schools will open Monday, Sept. 5, with a teachers' meeting. Students will begin classes with a half-day of school Sept. 6, with the exception of Sycamore which will have a full day. The Sycamore cafeteria will open Tuesday and the others Wednesday.

The three vacancies still existing in the county system are: vocational - agriculture at McCutchenville, physical education and mathematics at Salem and commercial at Marseilles.

May 2, 1956, has been designated as the last day of school for the year.

Police Investigate Death of Socialite

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An investigation continued today of the death of 22-year-old Mrs. Doris Silver Ostreicher, red-haired socialite who eloped with a Miami policeman in June but had since been separated from him.

Mrs. Ostreicher, daughter of the vice president of the huge Food Fair grocery chain, died suddenly in the apartment of friends here Wednesday night.

An autopsy was performed Thursday but Coroner Melville Ashton declined to disclose the findings. He said an investigation was continuing.

Ostreicher, at Miami Beach, was notified of his wife's death and flew here.

Sales Tax Receipts Show Increase Here

A rise of nearly $6,000 in sales tax receipts in Marion County for the week ending Aug. 13 compared with the same week last year was noted today by Roger W. Tracy, state treasurer.

Tracy's weekly report on sales tax collections revealed that sales tax receipts in Marion County were $24,542 for the week. Last year in the same period they were $18,331.

Over the state, the collections amounted to $3,359,078 during the seven-day period, compared with $2,687,751 collected in the same week in 1954.

All counties surrounding Marion County showed gains in receipts for the week.

McGregor Awaits Report On Depot Roof Cave-In

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—The decision on whether to call a congressional investigation into the collapse of a warehouse roof at Shelby Air Force Depot here will await an engineering report on the cause of the cave-in, Rep. J. Harry McGregord (R - Ohio) says. McGregor said he won't make the decision until the report by Ammann and Whitney, New York engineering consultants, is completed in about three weeks. Col. Narce Whitaker, who commands the depot, said damage to the near six million dollar building amounted to about $200,000 when 5,000 square feet of roof collapsed recently.

Bible Words for Today

I PETER 3:17—"It is better to suffer for doing right, if that be God's will, than for doing wrong" (RSV)

* * *

Many a Christian finds himself in a dilemma in present day life. Though he desires to live a life committed to Christ he discovers that this may bring on much ridicule and scoffing. He may find that because he refuses to join in the drinking or participate in low forms of humor that he will be accused of being sanctimonious.

Thus he is tempted to join in the practices of others to escape the ridicule but in so doing injures his own conscience and moral integrity.

It is well to be reminded that we cannot hope to escape the scoffer but that it is easier to bear suffering which comes from doing what is right than that which we have to bear for having given ourselves to evil.

Jesus put it another way: "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Dr. Arthur W. Newell
St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church
Richmond, Va.

Church Briefs From the District

"God's Endless Search" will be the sermon subject at the Nevada Lutheran Church Sunday morning. Ladies' Aid Society meeting will be Thursday at the parsonage home of Mrs. K. R. Roberts. Luther League meetings will be resumed early in September.

—:—

For the second week there will be no church service of St. Paul Lutheran congregation at Prospect Sunday because of vacation of the pastor. The Sunday School classes will meet as usual.

—:—

Sponsored by the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist Church at Prospect Sunday at 4 p.m., a young people's Faith Retreat, with other Methodist youth groups in Marion County invited, will be held at Prospect Community Park. In case of unfavorable weather, the event will be held in the school building. Taking part will be guest workers from Dayton and Delaware. The speaker will be Rev. Harley Martin, Methodist youth director for Dayton District.

A picnic supper will be under direction of Mrs. Dale Bachelder and her committee and recreation will be conducted by Paul Keller of Delaware. Campfire song session will be led by Mrs. Mary June Durst, youth worker of the Dayton District, and others taking part. The campfire will be prepared by Myron Halley, Carl Moser and boys of the host group. A closing worship and dedication service will be held with Rev. Martin giving a meditation message Mrs. Eva Daniels and girls of the entertaining Youth Fellowship will serve as reception committee. This is for both intermediate and senior age young people, parents and Sunday School teachers and others interested in the youth work of the church.

At morning worship hour Sunday in the church the sermon theme will be, "A Fearless Future," the pastor, Rev. E. A. Leeson, announced.

Strange Object Sighted in Sky Over Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—A strange object was being seen in the sky near here again last night.

County police Sgt. Ralph Weber and patrolman Ernest Nehrer, working in separate cruisers, reported to their dispatcher at almost the same time that they were watching a big, bright, round object in the sky near the Fernald atomic plant in northwestern Hamilton County.

Sgt. Weber estimated the object to be at about a 5,000 foot altitude. Both officers said it remained stationary.

Dispatcher Thomas McGuinn said he also received some telephone calls from farmers in the neighborhood that they had seen the object.

Defeat in Softball Contest Brings 10 Naval Enlistments

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—The "Terrors," a softball team, challenged a local Navy team to a game, promising to enlist if the sailors won.

Today the 10-man squad enlisted en masse at the local recruiting station and will be shipped to Bainbridge, Md., for basic training.

The sailors, headed by Cmdr. D. K. Davidson of the recruiting station, defeated the Terrors 9-7 Thursday night and their captain, J. T. Flahive, led his teammates into the recruiting station this morning.

Boredom Wrecks Home

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — Boredom with homemaking is a primary cause of family disruption, says Dr. Jennie I. Rowntree of the home economics school at the University of Washington.

"If homes could be invested with significance, if we could teach girls that housework is love made visible, if they could be taught to regard family meal hours as high spots of the day, their boredom might vanish," she told the American Home Economics Association convention.

Moral Leadership

There have been times in this century when hard-headed men have complained because the United States has put morality above expediency in world affairs.

President Eisenhower used his address before the American Bar Association in Philadelphia on Wednesday to reassure Americans and their allies that the United States does not intend to put expediency above morality, either.

This has been the danger of coexistence—that in its effort to find a way to live without the threat of imminent war with the Soviet Union the United States might make compromises with the absolutist philosophy of the Communists.

Americans, the President declares, must stand by their principles. The United States wants peace, but it will not abandon its principles to buy peace at any cost. The moral leadership of America, the most powerful revolutionary force in the world since the success of the American revolution, will not be abandoned for the sake of coexistence.

The United States, the President declared at Philadelphia, disagrees wholly with those who believe "human goals can be most surely reached by a government of men who rule by decrees ignoring man as a spiritual being and upholding the all-powerful state as the main source of advancement and progress."

These are not empty platitudes coming from the mouth of the man whose statesmanship has been developed by his personal devotion to human freedom. They are intended to be taken to heart by Americans as well as by the allies of the United States. Coexistence has raised an issue.

There still exists in the United States a minority whose aim is to split the difference with absolutism until individual freedom has been whittled to the disappearing point.

This is the same minority whose soft attitude toward the Communist conspiracy made it possible for agents of the conspiracy to occupy important positions in the federal government during the Roosevelt and Truman presidencies.

It is the same minority whose devotion to creeping socialism could carry it as far in the direction of the all-powerful state in America as the Fabian socialists have carried it in Britain.

Its members would like to go beyond the point of putting the Kremlin on its good behavior while the U.S. State Department is negotiating with its leaders for settlements of troubled questions; they would like to put the United States on the defensive for is tradition of human liberty and the dignity of man.

President Eisenhower has spiked the guns of all hopeful absolutists.

The United States will not compromise its basic principles for the sake of drawing warm assurances of peaceful intentions from a regime that has yet to prove its sincerity. There can be no peace without justice — and the United States and the Soviet Union are no closer together on justice than they have been at any time since counter-revolutionists seized power in Russia after the original revolutionists had overthrown the czars in the closing days of World War I.

Only Half a Parity Ratio

During July, the agricultural parity ratio dropped to 84. This figure represents the ratio of farm prices received to farm prices paid, on the assumption that perfect parity of 100 attained during the four years immediately preceding the outbreak of World War I.

At 84, the farm parity ratio is lower than it has been at any time before the outbreak of World War II — low enough to have prompted Secretary of Agriculture Benson to take note of it in his latest public address and to promise a higher level of farm prices. During and after World War II, the ratio was in the farmers' favor and continued to be so until the Korean War ended; it soared to 115 in 1947.

There never has been a parity ratio for industrial workers, unfortunately. If such a ratio could be established, it would show the relationship between wages received to prices paid.

The cost of living index reflects prices paid. Since the period from 1947 to 1949 has been used as the base of 100 for the cost of living index and average weekly earnings in manufacturing during 1947-1949 were about $53, a comparison might be made between those earnings and present earnings in manufacturing to show where wage earners were in 1947-1949 — a ratio of 53.

The July weekly earning figure this year was a little more than $75 on a national average. The cost of living index was a little more than 14. This is a ratio of 65. In 1947-1949, the same ratio was 53. There has been a net improvement of 12 points in the ratio for manufacturing employes while there has been a net deterioration of 24 points in the ratio for farmers during the same period.

That is the nub of the farm problem in 1955 —how to keep the farm population from being forced toward the sidelines in the relentless competition for an ever-larger share of consumers' dollars.

Challenge to Soviet

By David Lawrence

Eisenhower Clearly Delineates Foreign Policy

Lawrence

Soviet Russia has been given a graceful but firm warning that "peaceful co-existence" does not mean acceptance by the United States of the "status quo" in the world. It does not mean "stagnation" but an opportunity for the peoples of the countries living under the yoke of Red tyranny to gain some day their liberation.

The astonishing thing is not what the President said in his speech to the American Bar Associaton but the fact that he said anything at this time which so clearly delineates American foreign policy in what might be called the post-Geneva mood of sweetness and light.

It may be that Eisenhower, who lunched recently with Secretary Dulles, has become aware of the hardening of the Communist tactics in preparation for the Foreign Ministers Conference at Geneva in October. It may be that the President is feeling the criticism which has been emerging from some quarters in this countrp and abroad about his fraternizations at Geneva last month. These may have been discouraging to the peoples in the satellite countries who fear that America may have abandoned her interest in their liberation.

THE PRESIDENT says candidly that Soviet Russia on one side and the United States and her allies on the other each claim that peace is being sought. Each side, he adds, identifies itself with "a deepseated hunger of mankind but the final judgment on them—and it may be years in coming—will depend as much on the march of progress within their borders, and on their proved capacity to help others advance, as on the tranquillity of their relations with foreign countries."

Here is a challenge to the Soviets to give freedom to the peoples within their own borders. The United States does not intend to abandon its moral position.

The President says peace can be established "only if we stand uncompromisingly for principle." He then proceeds to outline certain basic principles:

"There can be no true peace which involves acceptance of a status quo in which we find injustice to many nations, repressions of human beings on a gigantic scale, and with constructive effort paralyzed in many areas by fear.

"The Spirit of Geneva, if it is to provide a healthy atmosphere for the pursuit of peace, if it is to be genuine and not spurious, must inspire all to a correction of injustices, an observance of human rights and an end to subversion organized on a worldwide scale. . .

Geneva spells for America, not stagnation, then, but opportunity —opportunity for our own people and for people everywhere to realize their just aspirations.

"Eagerness to avoid war—if we think no deeper than this single desire—can produce outright or implicit agreement that injustices and wrongs of the present shall be perpetuated in the future. We must not participate in any such false agreement Thereby, we would outrage our own conscience. In the eyes of those who suffer injustice, we would become partners with their oppressors. In the judgment of history, we would have sold out our freedom of men for the pottage of a false peace. Moreover, we would assure future conflict!"

THESE ARE STRONG and courageous words and, since they are said by the man who as President of the United States commands today world-wide respect and attention, the Voice of America broadcast the speech around the globe.

It can be of transcendent importance behind the iron curtain as well as in the so-called "neutralist countries." Indeed Eisenhower made a special point in his address of the important part which countries with newly won independence can play in assuring freedom in the world Too often the leaders of those countries belie their own professions of morality by seeming to take a neutral stand as between gangsterism and immorality, on the one hand, and freedom and human liberty, on the other.

NO MORE ELOQUENT words have been spoken since World War II ended by any man in public life in the various countries of the world than those uttered by President Eisenhower when he concluded his speech to the American Bar Associaton about the global situaton, as he said:

"We must be firm but friendly. We must be tolerant but not complacent We must be quick to understand another's viewpoint, honestly assumed. But we must never agree to injustice for the weak, for the unfortunate, for the underprivileged, well knowing that if we accept destruction of the principle of justice for all, we cannot longer claim justice for ourselves as a matter of right."

Personal Piffle

By TRUMAN TWILL

Lightning has struck two trees within 100 yards of our house in RFD during this relatively storm-free summer — and the second time I was looking at the tree that got hit. Hence, the worry lines in my once-carefree countenance.

The other cause of worry lines is something that has happened inside the house, where a home-made hi-fi outfit is livening up the premises. There's no point to hi-fi unless it's loud; that's what the makers say is true and they control the knobs and switches.

There have been many times when I have thought it would be nice to be lulled to sleep by the Atlantic Ocean, but none of them has occurred since the summer hurricane menace began.

The most sickening war story I ever heard was told in a military trial on Governors Island, New York City, where soldiers who saw it happen testified against a GI charged with shoving two sick companions out of a Korean prison camp hut into 40-below temperatures to let them freeze to death.

Politics aside, I want Adlai Stevenson to run for president again because he is the only candidate of my lifetime who twinkled when he talked. All the others got solemn.

I consider the plucking and eating of a ripe tomato from my own garden a symbolic gesture of self-sufficiency and a rich reward for hours of back-breaking toil in behalf of what can be a frustrating hobby.

The smartest and most candid woman I know always has insisted that pettiness is the principal fault of her sex and after checking up on her opinion for a great many years I know of no reason to disagree with her.

It is my considered judgment that nine out of ten people in ordinary circumstances don't have any fun for the same reason they don't make parachute jumps. They never tried because they never had a chance.

There is no reason I can see why the United States and Russia shouldn't agree on a modus vivendi if each bears in mind that the other is dead set against the other government's way of handling human beings. Otherwise, I think the Kremlinites to buzz off.

When I help buy wedding presents. I always am tempted by ornamental objects, because it seems to me most brides and grooms start off with a lot of stuff supposed to be useful that frequently isn't.

If all the girls and women wearing parachute skirts would tear them up into dust cloths by tomorrow morning it would not be a minute too soon to suit me.

And to keep the balance even, I could do without seeing any more short pants on men with odd-looking legs. After all, fellows, we owe something to one another. We don't have to make the mistake women made when the wide ones began to wear slacks, do we?

Reds Sabotage Korean Armistice

By Wilfred Fleisher

An on-the-spot foreign correspondent since he covered Russia in 1918, Wilfrid Fleisher has reported from many capitals since 1946, he has specalized in news of Scandinavia.

STOCKHOLM

Two south Korean soldiers recently reported to the United Na- that they had fled from a "slave camp" in North Korea. They could tell the location of other such camps holding prisoners in defiance of truce regulations, the escapees declared.

When the case went to the Korean Truce Supervision Commission, representatives of two of the nations, Sweden and Switzerland, called for a meeting of the "neutral" group. But the delegates from Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland first refused to attend and then stalled over technicalities until the matter was dropped.

Case histories like this from the files of the ill-fated truce supervision group were disclosed recently by Swedes returned from Korea. The accounts made clear that the four-nation agency set up to police the peace over the battlegrounds of bloody Korea is broken in two on ideological lines.

According to both Swedes and Swiss, the Czechs and Poles have taken every opportunity to obstruct the commission's work of controlling the movement of troops and arms into North Korea. The Reds' actions, according to the representatives of the neutral nations have made a farce of the armistice agreement.

SOUTH KOREAN mobs, charging the Czechs and Poles with espionage, have sought to enter the commission compound on South Korea's Wolmi Island, assaulting the American guards.

Several hundred Swedes have participated in work of the commission over the past two years since the Korea armistice came into effect. The accounts with which they have returned confirm how effectively the commission has been paralyzed by the Communists.

After their case was blocked from discussion by the commission, for instance, the two Korean" "slave camp" escapees were taken from Panmunjom south of the 38th Parallel. It was proposed that an inspection team be sent to question them at the point where they were being held.

The Czechs and Poles argued that the armistice provided that inspection teams could be sent only to the locality where a violation was alleged to have occurred. Since no violation had taken place in South Korea, the Reds said, they could not agree to send an inspection team.

IT WAS THEN proposed that the inspection team should be dispatched to the locality in North Korea where the soldiers said they had been held.

The Czechs and Poles pointed again to the armistice terms and contended that the commission had no authority to send a team to any other locality than where the violation was alleged to have occurred and that it could not travel "all over Korea." This was taken to mean that if an inspection team were dispatched, the Communists could move their camp away during the commission's visit and bring it back later.

Another concrete case related to a report which reached the supervisory body to the effect that "aircraft in crates" had been brought in by the Communists by railway from Manchuria to a point in North Korea. When the commission met to investigate this report, the Czechs and Poles wanted to know what was meant by "Communists." The armistice, they argued, had made no mention of "Communists" but referred to Chinese volunteers and troops of the North Korean Peoples' Army.

NEW INSTRUCTIONS were then issued by the commission to investigate a report that Chinese volunteers or troops of the North Korean Peoples' Army had brought planes into North Korea. After several days of discussion, it was decided to send an inspection team to the locality.

The team was met by polite, bowing Chinese and North Korean generals and colonels and the members were driven around the airport in trucks. When this had been done, the chairman of the team, then the Czech representative on a basis of rotation, inquired of his Swedish and Swiss colleagues whether they had seen any new planes in crates. When they answered in the negative, the Czech declared the inspection was over and that the team was prepared to leave.

The Swedes and Swiss objected and after several more days of discussion, it was decided that another inspection should be made. On this occasion, a Swedish member of the commission spotted several new MIG-15 planes and drew attention to them. The Swedes asked to see the flight logs of these planes, but this was denied on grounds of military secrecy. The Czechs and Poles insisted that their instructions specified that they were to look for planes "in crates" and they were not crated

The commission, deadlocked, sent in two separate reports to the military armistice commission. The Czechs and Poles reported they had seen no planes in crates and the Swedes and Swiss declared that they had been unable to carry out a proper investigation as to whether the aircraft had been brought in. No further action was ever taken. Scores of similar instances have resulted in the fact that the commission has never agreed on any violation of the armistice terms.

In the first months following the signing of the armistice, not a single movement of troops or arms was ever reported from North Korea through the five check points designated in the armistice as ports through which all traffic must pass. According to the Swedish truce guards, it was evident that the Communists were bypassing the United Nations control points.

The situation has been rendered even more difficult for the commission since the four railways, connecting North Korea with China, cross the border outside the ports of entry.

It has been impossible, according to the Swedish personnel returned from Korea, to establish any personal relationship with the Czech and Polish members of the commission. The Reds were never allowed to go about singly but only in twos or in groups. Any attempt to approach them in private conversation failed. They were polite and friendly so long as no differences arose. Then they adopted a stubborn, negative attitude.

THE SWEDES NOTICED that junior Czech and Polish representatives often had more power and exerted more influence than their military superiors. Whenever a Czech or Polish representative traveled, he was accompanied by two other members, one to keep watch over him and another to return with the traveling companion.

The commission has been hampered from the outset by a division on all issues, with the Czechs and Poles openly taking the Communist side and the Swedes and Swiss fulfilling their neutral role. Inspection teams could only rarely be dispatched to localitites where violations of the armistice were alleged to have taken place in North Korea because unanimity has required and the Czechs and Poles were in constant opposition.

Another difficulty which the commission has faced relates to troop replacements, the Swedes recount. According to the armistice agreement, no more than 35,000 soldiers are to be admitted into Korea as replacements during any one month. But both North and South Koreans are allowed to send in military personnel who have been absent for short leave periods. The commssion has carefully counted the number of soldiers arriving at Korean ports, both North and South, but there has been no way of distinguishing whether a soldier is returning from leave or is a replacement. All the counting is therefore considered futile.

Czech and Polish members of the commission have repeatedly complained about their living conditions and attempted to induce their Swedish and Swiss colleagues to underwrite their complaints. On one occasion, Swedish personnel recount, the two Satellite neutrals drew up a list of 18 complaints.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Letters for Special Delivery

To the United Nations: You're losing prestige, Buster. Even your best friends and well-wishers wonder why you have seemed so silent when the goals for which you sent boys to suffer and die are being mocked, leered at and imperiled under your nose by the double-crossing Commie members of your own truce team in Korea. It looks like South Korea could get more help wigwagging Dagmar, the N. Y. Giants or Fibber McGee and Mollie. Or Foster Dulles, for that matter. The world is running scared but must it run over honor and justice?

DOES THE "U" IN U.N. stand for "unexcited"? Must that tall skyscraper on the East River offer a study in cold fronts? Need every one of its many thousand windows flash a "Do Not Disturb" sign? The U.N. sent thousands to be maimed and killed for a free Korea. It has stood for a truce team so "fixed" that the things for which its soldiers fought may never be realized.

For over a year it has been known from the Swiss and Swedes on the truce team that the Soviet controlled Czechs and Poles have sabotaged and double-crossed you. You know that while its enemy has carried out a big buildup for war, South Korea's protests and demonstrations have met only with a plea "Patience, my boy, patience." How much fraud, skullduggery and dirty work at the crossroads does it take to stir you?

IF ANY SUCH SITUATION were shown in a Hollywood movie the author would be considered a hophead. Russia smiling? Brother she's laughing and so is the Red world everywhere. I have seen song and dance teams get more respect.

Mr. Dulles joins you in urging the imperiled South Koreans to be patient. He is not only a man of peace but is working himself ragged for it. But he is leaning over backwards so far that he looks like a man putting his shoes on his head. Are you both confusing patience with hardening of the moral arteries and fatty degeneration of the human spirit?

How can Uncle Sam and the U.N. resemble heroic champions of four-play victims if our leaders don't show some moral indignation and enough courage to ask this direct question: Can the big smile, hearty handshake, cocktail party and rural picnic mean a thing when the Commies crucify justice in South Korea?

DON'T THE GI'S in hospitals and under white crosses in the Korean Hills figure in the picture? And what about their buddies now obliged to give complete protection to all truce team members, even to those trying to prove the dying was in vain? It's in the contract, yeah. But must we make the world safe for enemy contract breakers?

Yours, Elmer

P.S.—Mr. Dulles says "We are inclined to agree with the feeling of South Korea that the truce commission is not serving a very useful purpose." That's serving the indignation with banana fritters. You and Foster can talk plainer than that.

WEATHER FORECASTERS are taking a beating, but it seems to us that nobody could have foreseen the ghastly Noah-and-the-Ark floods that devastated the northeast . . . Diane was done for so far as wind damage was concerned, and only miracle men could have doped out her last convulsions in unprecedented cloudbursts. Most of the rivers which did the Connecticut damage are well known to this writer, and during the summer months are usually down to drybed.

Those which did the worst damage are mere brooks in August and even the Naugatuck, a fairly large river, has during the warm months been almost waterless for long stretches.

You would have had to go far to find communities which seemed in less danger from floods than Winsted, Torrington, Ansonia, Seymour and Southbury.

Helicopter performance in rescue work was sensational, and it is ironical that one of the biggest new helicopter plants in the East is located on the Housatonic and would have had its troubles if that river had rampaged.

Rev. E. H. Curtis Funeral Scheduled

Graveside services for Rev. Emmett Harrison Curtis, 88, a retired member of the Northeast Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church, will be held in Glendale Cemetery, Cardington, at 1:30 p.m. Monday. Rev. Curtis, a native of the Bethel community, near Cardington, died Tuesday in Orlando, Fla., where he had lived for over 20 years.

He was born in Bethel on Sept. 25, 1867, to Presley and Harriett Romans Curtis. He was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University and held pastorates in Ohio, Iowa and Florida. He was a pioneer in the Anti-Saloon League and during the regime of the late Wayne B. Wheeler was superintendent of the Delaware district of the Anti-Saloon League.

For five years he served as Florida superintendent of the Near East Relief Fund and spent one year in the Mediterranean and the Near East. He was a pastor in the Northeast Ohio Methodist Conference for 40 years.

He was first married Dec. 29, 1886, to Mary Elizabeth Stanley, who died in 1931. Later he married Dr. Blanche Doud, who survives.

Surviving in addition to his wife are: one daughter, Mrs. Grace Hartsook of Lakewood; one son, Stanley T. Curtis of Columbus; six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. A niece, Mrs. Charles Pipes, resides in Cardington.

Rev. Curtis' brother, Alva Curtis, served as Morrow County Probate Judge for several years.

U.S. Military Plane Blows Up in Azores

ANGRA DO HEROISMO, Azores Islands (AP) — An American SA16 amphibian military plane with a crew of five was reported to have exploded Thursday night seven miles north of Lajens Airdrome.

First reports gave no hint whether there were any deaths.

The plane was due to land at the U. S. Air Force Base at Lajens.

The plane wreckage fell into a valley.

Crawford Couple Injured in Crash

BUCYRUS—A 25-year-old Bucyrus man and his wife are in Bucyrus City Hospital with injuries suffered in a one-car accident at 12:45 a.m. today on U. S. Route 30-N, one-half mile east of Route 602.

David W. Vinson, 25 of Bucyrus, is in "critical" condition with a possible skull fracture and injury to his left leg. His wife, Margery, 22, is in "poor" condition with a compound fracture of the left leg, dislocated right arm and possible head injuries. They were first taken to Crestline Emergency Hospital and later transferred to the hospital here.

State highway patrolmen from the Bucyrus post said the accident occurred at a roadside park on Route 30 when Vinson lost control of the westbound auto on a curve. The car skidded across the highway and crashed through a fence into a soybean field Both occupants of the car were thrown out of the vehicle Patrolmen said they searched for Vinson for a half hour before they found him lying unconscious about 50 feet from the car. Mrs. Vinson was also unconscious when she was found.

The auto was demolished, patrolmen said.

Traffic Cases

Six drivers were assessed a total of $210 in Marion Municipal Court Thursday on traffic charges.

H. A. Stewart, 39, of near Marion was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and costs imposed July 12 when he was found guilty of drunken driving. Stewart had indicated that he would appeal the conviction but later dropped the appeal. He was also sentenced to five days in the Marion County Jail and his drivers license was suspended for three years.

Carl H. Belt, 27, of near Caledonia was fined $50 and costs on a charge of speeding.

Each of the other drivers were fined $15 and costs. The drivers and charges were: Billy Seates, 21, of Allen Park, Mich., speeding; N. D. Withrow, 27, of near Marion, speeding; O. E. Waggoner, 40, of West Elkin, O., no muffler; and Teddy Rhea, 77, of 794 Bryant St., insufficient brakes, fine and costs suspended.

Juvenile Court Case

An Upper Sandusky youth was found guilty of crossing a yellow line when he appeared for a hearing on the charge in Juvenile Court Thursday. James Alan Gamber, 16, was given a suspension of his driver's license for 30 days.

Wolfe-Haas Nuptial Vows Repeated in Church Here

Baskets of white gladioli and lighted candles in seven-branch candelabra tied with greenery and white satin bows decorated the altar of Emmanuel Baptist Church for the wedding Sunday, Aug 7, of Miss Joan Maxine Wolfe and Ronald Lee Haas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Newell of 527 E. Fairground St. and the bridegroom is the son of Herman F. Haas of 158 E. Fairground St. and the late Mrs Haas

MARKING THE family pews in the church were white satin bows The ceremony was read at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon by the pastor, Rev. C. E Hershey. Presenting a program of nuptial music were Miss Mary Ellen Kerr, organist, and Miss Patricia Haines, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, B F. Newell, wore a ballerina length gown of lace over net. The bodice was styled with a Queen Victoria collar and the long sleeves of lace ended in points over the hands She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white ribbon streamers.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Marilyn Wolfe, and bridesmaid was Miss Mary Jane Taylor. Their dresses were ballerina length of lace over net with portrait collars. Miss Wolfe was in a turquoise shade and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of light pink asters and Miss Taylor's dress was yellow and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of dark pink asters.

STANLEY HAAS served as best man for his brother and seating the guests were Robert Wolfe, brother of the bride, and Jimmy Lowell Highland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Newell chose a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for about 50 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding cake was trimmed in yellow and mint green, the bride's chosen wedding colors, and the same colors were carried out in other decorations Serving at the bride's table in the dining room were Mrs. William McClain, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. John Harbin, and other tables were arranged on the lawn.

When the couple left on a motor trip to Florida, Mrs. Haas was wearing a costume of yellow and green print on a white background She wore with it white accessories and her bridal orchid They now are residing at 315½ S. Prospect St

Mrs Haas was graduated from Harding High School and is employed as a clerk in the office of the city auditor. Mr. Haas, also a graduate of Harding High School, is a draftsman with Floyd G Browne and Associates.

Electronic Aircraft Detector Is Developed by American Group

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Air Research and Development Command announced today it has developed electronic aircraft detector—we'll call it a buzz bonnet—to help spotters put the bee on low flying enemy planes

The gadget is mounted on one of those tough, plastic hard hats like construction workers wear to protect their noggins.

On top is an antenna which looks like a pee-wee public address system or high fidelity horn. On top of this is a horizontal cylinder, like a coil. A short rod with a knob on the end sticks out in back. The volume control clips to the vicinity of your left lapel.

Technicians at the Rome, N. Y., Air Development Center figured it out for the volunteer Ground Observer Corps. The GOC has the job of spotting low flying enemy planes which sneak through the country's radar warning network.

The theory is such planes would have their own radar gear going great guns. The little 20 ounce detectors could pick up these impulses quicker and more accurately than you could spot a plane by sight, especially at night or when its cloudy or foggy.

The detector comes with ear piece, an over-the-shoulder bag for the four-ounce battery, a pulse amplifier, and (get this) a coaxial choke assembly.

The Air Force did not announce any price.

Adventist Church Joins Flood Relief Campaigns

Stressing the need for children's and infant's clothing, canned goods and bedding in the flooded disaster area of the East, the Seventh-Day Adventist Church is making a call for donation of such items which will be sent in trucks from this area Sunday afternoon. This is a part of the regular organized relief program of the denomination.

It is expected that two trucks will be needed to transport the collection of materials from the church's Marion, Bucyrus and Galion centers. Each individual church has its own welfare and relief program and the Marion center is housed at present in a small building at the rear of the church at 224 N. State St.

Anyone desiring to give in this emergency call may bring articles to the church Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning or call 2-3047 to arrange for pickup service, church spokesmen announced.

Lodge Activities

Movies were shown to the group by the hostess, Mrs. Edith Heller, when Roosevelt Auxiliary No. 277 met Monday night in the Central Labor Union hall. Prizes in games were won by Marcella Troxell, Ethel Thompson and Bernice Huntsman. Project books and pictures are to be brought to the next meeting, Sept. 12. An anniversary dinner is being planned and reservations can be made by calling 2-6474.

Pride of 35, Lodge No. 79, Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, accepted an invitation to exemplify "balloting" at the eighth Ohio joint state convention to be held Oct. 1 at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Toledo, at its meeting Tuesday night in the Central Labor Union hall. Charlene Gilbert, vice president, presided. Plans were made for a homecoming party to be held Sept. 27. The next meeting will be Sept. 13.

Board To Receive Bids For Printing of Ballots

The Marion County Board of Elections announced today that it has asked several printers in the area to submit bids for the printing of the ballots for the November General Election.

All bids must be submitted by 4 p.m. Wednesday. There will be about 130,000 ballots printed for all city, township, and county candidates, as well as special issues which will be decided at the election

Unionist's Wife Defies Threats To Picket Home

CHICAGO (AP) — A union's threat to picket the home of a militant housewife who has locked out her striking husband did not materialize today.

Mrs. Esther Quigley, 35, mother of four, said no pickets had appeared at her home on the West Side. Thursday, a spokesman for Local 1214 of the CIO United Automobile Workers said a picket line composed of wives of other strikers was being organized to picket Mrs. Quigley's home.

The spirited Mrs. Quigley has barred her husband, Andrew, a steward for the union, from their home for striking — during negotiations — against Harrison Sheet Steel Co. About 450 workers are involved in the strike which began Aug. 13.

Mrs. Quigley has threatened to divorce her 200-pound husband if the struck firm is forced to go out of business because of the strike. Chester Cain, executive vice president of the steel company, said the fate of the firm will be decided Saturday at a meeting with union representatives and federal conciliators.

Mrs. Quigley says she has organized the wives of 45 other strikers in an effort to get their husbands to return to work. She said the strikers took the law into their own hands by striking Aug. 13, two days before their contract expired and while negotiations were in progress.

"All we wives are interested in is the weekly paycheck," Mrs. Quigley said today. "If the company is forced to close its doors then I'll close my doors to my husband permanently," she added.

The threatened picketing of her home failed to frighten the 135 pound housewife when she learned of the plan Friday.

"It's just a plan to scare me" she said. "Let em come. I'm ready for anything."

Marion Man, Portsmouth Girl Wed in Euclid Rites

Now at home at 24381 Garden Dr., Euclid, O., following their marriage in that city on July 2 are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hudnall. Before her marriage, Mrs. Hudnall was Miss June Elizabeth Hensge. She is the daughter of Mrs. Henry C. Hensge of Portsmouth, O. Mr. Hudnall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hudnall of 660 Blaine Ave., this city.

The wedding took place in the East Shore Methodist Church in Euclid with the pastor, Rev. Paul O. Mayer, officiating for the 4:30 o'clock ceremony. Bouquets of white gladioli and mums were at either side of the altar.

FOR A PROGRAM of nuptial music, Mrs. Shirley Cutler was organist and Mrs. Charles O'Malley was vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Clifford M. Hallas of Euclid, was attired in an ankle length dress of white imported embroidered Swiss organdy styled along Princess lines. Her fingertip length veil was caught to a tiara of white orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a cascade arrangement of white daisies.

Mrs. Clifford M. Hallas of Euclid was matron of honor and her sister's only attendant. Her ankle length gown was of white organdy over light blue taffeta accented with a wide blue taffeta sash tied with a large bow in the back. She carried blue daisies arranged in a white basket.

SERVING AS BEST man for the bridegroom was Walter M. Galyk of Marion and Akron and ushers were Duane Burgeson of Cleveland and Herbert Rice of Cleveland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hensge chose a dress of mauve cotton sheen with which she combined white accessories. Her corsage was of purple delphinium. Mrs. Hudnall was attired in an aqua lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception following the ceremony was held at Smith's Restaurant on Lake Shore Blvd. in Euclid. When the couple left on a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, Mrs. Hudnall was wearing a pink and white checked cotton dress. Princess style, it had a square neckline and white lace inserts down the front at either side of the button opening. She combined with it white accessories.

Mrs. Hudnall was graduated from Ohio University where she was affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and is a second grade teacher in the South Euclid-Lyndhurst school system. Mr. Hudnall, a graduate of Harding High School and Ohio State University, is dean of boys at Memorial Junior High School in the South Euclid-Lyndhurst school system.

Attending the wedding from Marion were Mrs. Eloise Hummer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Thomas and George Roest.

OSU Confers Degrees on 720

Commencement Held; Toledoan Is Speaker

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University conferred degrees on 720 students this morning in ceremonies in the Men's Gymnasium on the campus.

More than half the graduates at the summer quarter commencement were candidates for advanced degrees, with 99 receiving Ph. D. degrees.

Dr. E. L. Bowsher, Toledo superintendent of schools, the principal speaker, reminded graduates of their heritage from those who have made Ohio great, and told them "It is only in an atmosphere of freedom with opportunities for competition and individual enterprise that strength and greatness will continue to grow."

Six students received degrees summa cum laude.

Mr. and Mrs. Vergil K. Ort, formerly of Napoleon, Ohio, each received doctor of philosophy degrees. University officials said it marked the first husband - wife team to be awarded the coveted Ph.D. in the same commencement exercises. The Orts, married 14 years, met in Napoleon when Mrs. Ort taught in the public schools there and Vergil was principal of the elementary and junior high school.

Parking Limit Set

Imposition of a 30-minute time limit on parking on the east side of N. Grand Ave. north from E. Center St. was started Thursday, Safety-Service Director John Davis said today. The 30-minute limit replaces limited parking for loading and unloading of trucks only previously in force.
